

HIGHER RANKS FOR CAB FIRMS

BY BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

CAB drivers in Honiton could soon be able to benefit from new taxi ranks in the town.

Currently there are only two spaces in the town but that could be set to increase to four ranks after the issue was discussed during the East Devon District Council (EDDC) licensing and enforcement committee meeting on Tuesday last.

All the spaces will be on the north side of the High Street, near the Manor House and the Baptist Church. The two spaces that are currently available in the town will revert to normal parking and would also be available for use by stallholders on market days.

The proposal has received backing from EDDC and is set to go before a public consultation.

Honiton town councillors have welcomed the introduction of new taxi rank spaces.

A spokesman for the town council said: "The proposed taxi rank now agreed by the district council was the result of a suggestion made by the former market supervisor, Terry Farebrother, and was fully supported by the town council.

"Four market stalls will be moved to the other side of the High Street and although there will initially be an overall loss of three market stalls, it is expected that these will be replaced in due course when the changes to the New Street and High Street junction are made later this year."

John Huffer, of Horseshoe Taxis, Honiton, and the East Devon Taxi Association, said: "Everyone in the association is in agreement with the proposals and we are all 100 percent behind it.

"We will give up our present site and move over to the other side of town.

"It makes a lot of sense and will give us some more space and will mean that the market stall holders will be closer together."

However, not everyone is happy with the proposal.

Douglas Mort runs the Osteopathic Centre, which operates from the Manor House, and objected to the proposal on three grounds.

Mr Mort said that he was worried that access to the baptist church would be restricted, that taxis will cause a hazard turning in the road and that the new taxi ranks will be too close to the Dowell Street junction.

Despite the protest from Mr Mort, Honiton police and the Highways Agency are supporting the move.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "In the past the police have complained about taxis double parking in the High Street when the rank has been full.

"Although the population of Honiton has increased dramatically over the past 20 years with the corresponding increase in the use of taxis there has been no similar increase in rank space."

Honiton residents now have the opportunity until Wednesday, November 4th to make comment on the proposal.

A plan showing the proposed location of the ranks is available for viewing at Honiton Town Council offices between 10am and 1pm on weekdays and at EDDC offices, Knowle, Sidmouth during normal working hours.

Comments should be sent to the Licensing Manager, East Devon District Council, Knowle, Sidmouth, EX10 8HL, to be received by no later than Wednesday, November 4th 2009.

Shop needs more helpers

A CHARITY shop in Honiton is on the lookout for volunteers.

The Devon Air Ambulance Trust (DAAT) shop, 124 High Street, will be holding an open morning on Tuesday, October 13th, from 9am until 12noon, where anyone interested can go along and meet staff and find out more about volunteering.

Philip King, volunteering manager for DAAT said: "Not everyone is able to give to charity financially, especially in the current climate, but they may have a few hours either on a regular or occasional basis to gift instead."

"There's a broad range of different tasks that need doing at the shop, from front of house, to behind the scenes. There's something for every age and ability, so please come along and find out more."

"Volunteering is not only a great way to help a local charity, but it's also an opportunity to meet new friends, gain experience, and can add to the CV you present to potential employers in the future."

Helena Holt, chief executive of the charity, added: "The charity's volunteers form the backbone of the organisation with over 250 across the county, and play a substantial role in ensuring the funding is there to keep both helicopters airborne."

For more information about volunteering in the Honiton shop contact 01392 466666.

Bomb alert

SHOPPERS in Honiton were on high alert on Thursday (October 1st) as the bomb squad rushed into the town.

A suspicious package was found opposite the town's police station in the High Street.

The specialist unit was sent to the scene at approximately 1pm after munitions, believed to date back to the Second World War, were found by builders working on a property in the area. A police cordon was quickly set up at the scene.

The bomb squad soon established that the munitions were stable and the police cordon was stepped down.

Fire callout

FIRE crews from Ottery St Mary and Honiton were called to reports of a flat fire in the Mossop Close area of Ottery in the early hours of Wednesday morning.

The incident happened just before 7am.

The fire was extinguished using two breathing apparatus wearers and one hose reel jet.

SPEEDING motorists are making life a misery for one lollipop man in Honiton.

Geoff Reel has been helping children and their parents safely cross the road outside Littletown Primary School for just over three years.

However, throughout the past few weeks Mr Reel has encountered several near misses during his crossing patrol.

He said: "When I put the pole out into the middle of the road people are not stopping like they are supposed to. It is really dangerous and it could end killing someone."

"People need to slow down, I don't think they realise how fast they are going sometimes."

Judith Roberts, of the school crossing patrol office, based in Exeter, said: "Geoff has had a lot of drive throughs on that road (Littletown Road) recently. I think he has had five in the last couple of weeks."

"Maybe part of the problem is that we have just started a new procedure. The pole is put out into the road first and then when the traffic stops the lollipop man or woman walks into the road."

"Motorists just keep going and are driving around the pole. It is a danger for the kids, a danger to Geoff, it is a danger to everyone really."

"Littletown Road is a very fast road anyway, I think 50 percent of the drivers are ignoring the speed limit and putting their foot down."

"Geoff is very committed and he has been with us for a long time and he has kept going through all of this, we certainly don't want to lose him."

PCSO Sue Rowe, of Honiton police, added: "Our lollipop men and ladies are having a bit of a hard time of it at the minute."

"Last week we had three incidents of cars that haven't stopped. A supervisor went out and witnessed one of the incidents and took down the details and we will be contacting the driver. Lollipop men are there for a reason and if you see one you must slow down and stop and be aware of them."

"They are very valuable to the community."

The school crossing patrol office are on the lookout for anyone who would like to become a reserve lollipop man or woman for Honiton. For more information contact Andrew Eagles on 01392 382247.

New platform is demolished. Rebuild plans are underway

BY ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

NETWORK Rail says it ordered a contractor to demolish and rebuild a platform wall in Axminster because it was not of the required standard.

But Network Rail has stressed that the setback at Axminster's railway station will not delay the ongoing project — and the cost will not be passed on to passengers.

Eyebrows were raised last week when what looked like a brand new platform was suddenly demolished.

Speculation was rife in the town and it has been suggested, but not confirmed, that it was built a number of inches out of the correct position.

Network Rail has not said exactly what the problem was, nor named the contractor, but issued a statement saying: "Network Rail sets a high standard for its work — whether or not they are delivered by our engineers or contractors — so that we bring a safe railway to passengers.

"We do not compromise on passenger safety and take our promises to passengers very seriously.

"As soon as we found, through regular inspection, that the platform wall was not built according to our required standards, we ordered our contractor to rectify the problem immediately.

"The additional work does not change our plan nor our progress in completing the scheme by end of this

It was also explained that a platform wall in this context is a structure that sits under the platform.

Network Rail also said the cost associated with the mishap will not be passed on to passengers as Network Rail funding is separate from that of train operating companies.

Work on the £20m project to double the track at Axminster started early this year.

The scheme, which is funded by Network Rail, will enable South West Trains to operate an hourly service between London Waterloo and Exeter St. Davids by the end of this year.

Axminster station will also be improved to accommodate the potential boost in passenger numbers.

Agency's pledge to crack the flooding

BY ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@tindlenews.co.uk

SOIL compaction is the catalyst for an Environment Agency (EA) initiative to prevent severe flooding in east Devon.

Studies carried out since the floods of October last year shows that soil compaction played a major part — and the agency has joined forces with farmers, East Devon District Council (EDDC) and Devon County Council to reduce the risk of a repeat.

The EA says that soil compaction happens when wet soil is compressed, especially by the weight of machinery or livestock.

When soil is compacted it becomes sealed, making it almost impossible for the soil to absorb rainwater, causing surface water to run off.

During the east Devon floods in October 2008, 177 millimetres of rain fell on Ottery St Mary and the surrounding area in just three hours.

It is described as one of the most intense rainfalls in Britain in the last 50 years.

An EA spokesperson said: "Our data shows it was 159 per cent of the average monthly rainfall for the area.

"When this much water falls onto compacted land, flash flooding is inevitable. It's made even worse if the farmland is on a steep slope above a town or village.

"This is the reality in many parts of east Devon."

The EA also says that more than 350 properties in 30 towns and villages were flooded on October 29th and 30th in 2008.

More than 80 per cent were not flooded by the main rivers that pass through the area, but by small streams or by surface water run-off.

EA land quality officer Richard Smith explained: "When in good condition, well drained soil can

◆ EA land quality officer Richard Smith, with sub-soiler in background attached to tractor absorb huge quantities of rainwater.

"Our work has shown that an open loose soil structure can absorb 50 millimetres of rain per hour, but a hard compacted soil can shed up to 90 per cent as surface water run-off. This problem is widespread in east Devon."

A piece of machinery known as a sub-soiler can be used to break up compacted soil, but only if certain conditions apply.

The EA spokesperson explained: "When presented with a problem, many farmers have been quick to tackle the problem.

"Farmers can break up their land following harvest to remove compaction.

"But this can only be done if the soil is not wet. Last year's relentless wet weather made this very difficult."

Councillor Graham Brown, EDDC's portfolio holder for environment, a ward member for Feniton and also a farmer, said: "I know the kind of challenges farmers are facing.

"There are massive economic pressures and the past three wet summers have meant there hasn't been a good time to work the land.

"But I also know just how devastating the east Devon floods were.

"Something has got to be done to reduce the risk. I'm delighted that we are working with farmers to tackle this part of the problem. Together we can crack this."

NFU regional director Melanie Hall said farmers are the first to recognise the importance of soil condition.

Expensive fertilisers, for example, get washed away on compacted soil.

Melanie commented: "We welcome the EA working with farmers to manage the risks of flooding through land management where practical."

As part of the prevention initiative, farmers without a sub-soiler can hire one from the EA.

Soil surveys were carried out in east Devon at more than 360 sites.

For example, poor conditions (which would cause increased run-off) were found in:

- 40 per cent of sites at Ottery St Mary
- 53 per cent of sites at Feniton.

Nurse's bag is swiped from locked car boot

BY BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

A HONITON nurse is urging women to be aware of what they keep in their handbags after hers was swiped from the boot of a friend's car.

Susie Mills, who works at Honiton Hospital, was in Seaton with a friend on Saturday, September 10th.

They parked up at Seaton Hole and walked down to the beach - Miss Mills says she didn't want to walk down to the beach with her handbag and decided to leave it secure and out of sight in the boot of the car she was travelling in.

Miss Mills said: "We parked up and there were a lot of other cars parked in the same spot as us. We stayed at the beach for about 30 minutes but then it started to rain so we left and went back to the car. When we got back to the car we didn't notice anything strange at all and there was no sign of damage."

It wasn't until Miss Mills and her friend arrived back in Honiton that they realised something was wrong.

Miss Mills said: "I went to get my bag out of the boot of the car and it wasn't there. Then you suddenly start thinking to yourself, did I take my bag to the beach with me? Did I leave it somewhere? But I knew I didn't take it out of the car."

"My friend walked around the side of the car and then he saw that the lock on the drivers side had been pushed in, that is how they must have got into the boot."

"The police think it must have been someone who had broken into a lot of cars and not an amateur criminal because of the way the lock had been damaged."

Fortunately Miss Mills was able to get back into her house because her friend had a spare key with him.

Once inside her property the first thing she did was phone the police.

"I guess everyone reacts differently to these sort of things but I was shaking and it was very difficult for me," she said.

"I phoned the police and they were very helpful and they went through all the practical things with me. They did warn me that because my driving licence was in the bag whoever committed the crime could have my address so I should think about securing my property and my car that was parked outside."

"When this sort of thing happens there are so many things to think of. I had to cancel all my bank cards. I phoned the house insurance but they couldn't help me with the locks on my front door because they said my bag was in someone else's car."

"Then I phoned the car insurance people and they told me the same sort of thing and couldn't help me with changing the locks on my car. They did point out though that if I didn't get the locks changed my car wouldn't be covered."

Miss Mills says it took three weeks and more than £300 to eventually get everything sorted out.

She said: "It was such a mess. Inconvenient doesn't describe it really and it was so difficult to get everything sorted out."

"Later on I realised that there were other things in the bag that couldn't be replaced. I had some old photos in there that meant a great deal to me and a gold chain that meant a great deal to me as well."

"I think living on my own made it harder for me, I am not a nervous person but for a couple of weeks I was very nervous. I guess what I have learnt, and what I want other people to think about, is that you shouldn't carry anything on you that has your address on it."

Another east Devon town on bike tour list?

COULD the Tour of Britain pass through Ottery St Mary next year?

That is what one town councillor is hoping for.

Roger Giles, town, district and county councillor for Ottery, praised the thousands of people that turned out to watch elite riders race along the Devon parts of the route during stages six and seven of the event.

Mr Giles said: "There was huge interest in the Tour of Britain cycle race in Devon for stage six and stage seven of the race. There were massive crowds. Police estimate more than 14,000 in Bideford and more than 3,000 in Hatherleigh."

"There are many benefits. It is a wonderful opportunity for visitors, who will be supporting the Devon economy, and many many more who will watch it on television, to see our beautiful Devon countryside and to visit us."

"Devon County Council (DCC), who support the event financially, estimate that the value to the Devon economy is five times the expenditure. There are also considerable benefits in promoting cycling - especially to school children."

"DCC is committed to the Tour of Britain in 2010, 2011 and 2012. In each of those years the tour will spend two days in Devon and Somerset. This year the tour passed near Ottery - Honiton, Gittisham Hill, Hare and Hounds and Sidbury. "Perhaps the town council would join me in pressing for the route to pass through Ottery - what about climbing Chineway next year?"

STARLIGHT SUCCESS

MORE than £10,000 has been raised by those taking part in the recent Starlight Challenge.

The event involved a team of 12 taking part in a 50-mile triathlon throughout east Devon — starting with a one-mile swim in the sea off Seaton beach.

The swim was followed by a nine-mile run and then a 40-mile cycle ride.

Police sergeant John Gait, of Rousdon, the organiser of the event, said: "In the training, planning and execution of our event I have learnt more about myself than I thought possible and witnessed incredible feats of kindness. It has provided me with a lifetime of memories as well as an enormous sense of pride and satisfaction.

"The challenge became more than a team effort, it became a real community effort with many local businesses contributing or helping out. I feel it is really important to reiterate that message.

"In the end we should have over £10,000 which can really make a difference to children and their families."

Sgt Gait added: "This sum of money could help enrich the lives of two terminally ill children by enabling their dying wishes to be granted. It is humbling to think of what has been achieved by such a great team of people.

"However, it would have been nowhere near so successful without the support of many of our local businesses, our families and many of our friends."

Following the triathlon a fund raising event was held at the Axe Yacht Club — this included a hog roast and live music.

The organisers say they would like to thank all those who donated prizes or who helped with the supply of goods and services including Flamingo Pool in Axminster, Devon Ducks, EmmLee, Charmouth Bakery, Exeter Chiefs, Tottenham Hotspur Football Club, Flybe, Lyme Regis

Golf Club, Tesco, Honeybuns, Signs Southwest, Heavitree Breweries, The Tour of Britain, River Cottage, Papa Lee-Gal, Axe Yacht Club, The Talbot Arms, Woodbury Park Golf Club, Richard Marker of Coombe Estate, Duncan Driver, Tracey Coletti, Rodney Spillar, Matthew Searle and the Spinks family.

Money can still be donated to the appeal by visiting www.justgiving.com/starlight_challenge or by visiting a local Natwest Bank and making a donation to the Starlight Challenge account.

For more information about Starlight visit the website at www.starlight.org.uk.

Double swine flu cases at primary

TWO cases of swine flu have been confirmed at Ottery St Mary Primary School.

Headteacher of the school Doug Rylance said: "We have had a couple of cases in the same family confirmed. They have obviously been to the GP and are being treated. Obviously we have contacted parents so they are aware of the situation.

"It's very small and contained — there are two cases out of 300."

A spokesman for Devon County Council said: "We have ensured all schools are kept up to date with the latest advice from the NHS on avoiding the spread of swine flu and a health and safety officer is available to headteachers who have any specific inquiries."

Anyone with concerns about swine flu should visit www.devonpct.nhs.uk and follow the links on the page.

Alternatively contact the National Pandemic Flu service on 0800 1513100.

Variety Show at Axminster Guildhall

A charity event primarily in aid of Hospiscare EXETER, MID AND EAST DEVON

Personal message from event organiser Karen (nee Chapman) Bostock:

In February this year I lost my father-in-law (John Bostock, of Axe Skip Hire Ltd) after a two year battle against cancer. I am the first to admit that I didn't know much about Hospiscare and what the charity did until our involvement with them, but I do know that our family would not have coped with the situation as well without them. So while I am still here and able, I will try and raise some money to help keep the charity going so it can continue to give help and support to others.

I would like to thank all of the sponsors and friends and family who without, the event would not be possible. Everybody is working really hard to make sure that 'One Night Only' will be one night to truly remember.

MEETING IS JUST A BAD DREAM...?

EDITOR — Alex in Planningland.

The other day I dreamt I went to this important meeting. I knew it was important because outside there was a crowd of people dressed as oranges. On the door was a grim-faced Melon, with 'Buy me and Get Two Free before I go rotten' printed on his shirt. He asked me severely whether I had any banana skins in my pocket. "The Committee don't like Banana Skins," he warned. "Have you anything else that's forbidden? Anything sharp?"

"Only the odd remark," I said nervously. "Oh, and one or two custard pies — but they're very soft." Before he could reply the Mad March Hare appeared.

"Name?" he snapped. There was a big Double Your Points Voucher heading his checklist.

"Nobody special," I mumbled. "I just —"

"Don't waste my time, Mr Nobody-Special. If you've got nothing to say then come inside and say it."

With that he pushed me in the back with his On Offer leek.

Inside the vast hall were a lot of sleeping doormice, all with the slogan 'Every Little Helps' stamped across their T-shirts.

"Please take your seat at the top of that ladder," ordered the hare.

It took a few minutes to climb up the pile of documents marked "Consultations and Planning — restricted viewing only".

"You have 10 minutes to digest all this," shouted the hare now far below. "We know what's in it all. We spent months compiling it," he said. His tone suggested that it was my fault. "So get on with making no sense of it."

He looked at his watch.

"You've already wasted two minutes listening to me."

As I began to feel dizzy, the hare called the meeting to order.

"Can I come down? I wailed. "I hate heights."

"Now," said the hare crisply. "Have you any interests to declare?"

"Well, I like a bit of tennis..."

"No, no, anything really important?"

"Oh, like, er, have I any shares in supermarkets, you mean?"

The hare glared at me sternly. "Don't be flippant, Mr Nobody-Who-Do-You-Think-You-Are. I meant, 'Are you on any committee?'"

"No, but I was thinking..."

"You are not here to think." He paused. "Now have you any flimsy technicality, subjective evidence or anonymous letters to support your petition? Anything that could seriously damage our, er, I mean, your case?"

He looked at his watch again before I could reply.

"Time's up. Our motion is carried, and yours, Mr er, Nobody-Special, is therefore rejected. Have you anything to say before sentence is passed?"

He glanced at the still sleeping doormice.

"Come on you lot. Wake up, it's time to go to the Isle of Wight for all that infill."

I then woke up in a cold sweat. If this was a dream meeting, what on earth would a real meeting be like.

Best start for kids is married parents

EDITOR — Referring to the article

"New children's centre ready to open its doors" (Pulman's View, September 22nd) I wonder how many parents will hesitate over the enormous optimism expressed by all those councillors, officials, "service providers" and experts that the new facility in Honiton will help provide "the best" for children.

I do not for one moment doubt that they all have the very best motives and highest expectations for this £277,000 initiative.

Andrea Davis (DCC cabinet member) exemplified their positive outlook in stating: "There is overwhelming evidence to demonstrate that it's the early years of a child's life when patterns are set for the future."

"Every parent naturally wants the best for their child and we are determined to help and support them in ensuring their children get the best possible start in life."

But, as almost everyone who knows anything about the subject now agrees, the "best possible start in life" is when a child has two married parents.

At best, "children's centres" can only be a sticking-plaster for what someone recently termed "our broken society"; at worst, their very existence tends to entrench the family-eneffebing idea that the state can be the provider of "the best possible start in life" for children.

It never has been and never can be for the simple, self-evident reason that parents make the best parents; furthermore, it is obviously the best parents who should be training the "experts" in "parenting skills", not the other way round.

One further question: What troubled toddler ever sobbed "I want my integrated child care... I need a multi-disciplinary safeguarding policy... where's my early-years priority intervention?"

I sincerely wish the new centre well. But, more than that, I wish all the kids in Honiton had a (married) mum and dad. So do most kids.

Thanks you arts society

EDITOR — On behalf of East Devon Branch of Alzheimer's Society we would like to thank Seaton Arts Society for its cheque of £3,500.

This amazing amount of money was raised from the summer exhibition organised by Ursula Pratt.

We are very grateful for such a generous sum. Dementia is a devastating illness for the patient and their family.

The carers have to not only cope with the patients day and night, but also watch as their loved one change.

East Devon Branch of Alzheimer's organise a lunch every three months. This enables carers to meet others in the same position.

Many a friendship has been made from these lunches, they can talk to people that really understand what they are going through and do not feel so isolated.

We would love to do more and this generous donation will certainly help. Once again a very big thank you to Ursula and her team.

No calamity at great show

EDITOR — I must congratulate Debbie Bradley for the magnificent production of Calamity Jane by the Testudo Musical Players.

All the principals were good as was their singing and acting and that goes for the chorus as well. The cowboys and soldiers were most convincing and everyone retained their Yankee accents throughout the show.

It was nice to see so many young people in the cast and I hope it will encourage others to come forward and join Testudo. As an old timer I can say it is most rewarding and great fun. I look forward to the next show.

When will you realise?

EDITOR — When will taxpayers such as your contributor, Mr E Watson of Seaton, realise that councillors are not there to represent taxpayers.

This also applies to MPs. They are there to represent themselves or a party. It's a good job with perks and expenses and beats working anytime.

The practise of representing taxpayers died out after the last war.

If you accept this fact everything is explained, the daft decisions, the planning fiascos, harebrained schemes, and above all the waste of taxpayers' money.

Do not expect too much from your local council, and you will not be disappointed

Gratitude to Mrs Rogers

EDITOR — On behalf of the Seaton Visitor Centre Trust, a huge thank you to all those involved in the Seaton Festival of Cycling, and particular thanks to Margaret Rogers without whose leadership the festival would not have happened.

When it was learned that the Tour of Britain would for the first time be passing through Seaton on the South West leg, she seized the opportunity and formed a committee of community representatives to plan the celebrations.

The support and enthusiasm from the community was tremendous and it was a privilege to be part of it.

Seaton looked wonderful, the atmosphere was great and we hope this will be just the first festival, to be followed by many, many more.

Public gives RNLI £179

EDITOR — Honiton and District Branch of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution would like to thank the public for their generosity at the recent Saturday morning collection held in Axminster.

The sum of £179.10 was raised which goes directly to support our brave lifeboat men and women.

The branch would be grateful for help with future collections in the town, so if you would be able to help in any way please contact our branch chairman, Peter Goodes, on 01404 42081.

RNLI (Honiton and District)

Decision for Tesco store leads to a lot of hot air

EDITOR — Predictably, the decision to allow Tesco to go ahead with its plans to develop the old Seaton camp site has led to a burst of hot air as the anti-Tesco balloon is deflated by the EDDC planning department.

Stand up 4 Seaton has been acting like a one-trick-pony and now that their trick hasn't proven effective as a campaigning instrument, they should sit down and work out if they really do have a future.

The insults flying around about EDDC officers and Tesco public relations personnel do not reflect well on the town, but if it helps to ease the bowels of local dissent, so be it.

The decision has been made and it is a waste of time for our toothless council to use its last minute (dare I say, deathbed?) conversion to the democratic process, to try and force the EDDC to change its mind.

First Willoughby House and now Tesco... it is perhaps time for the council to consider its future, along with their erstwhile bed fellows, SU4S.

Perhaps one last democratic crack at securing the future of our town hall may help to remove some of the egg on their faces and secure some of their future council seats.

It would be a fool who thinks that the process of development will be straightforward from here.

This is only stage one and there are clearly many hurdles to be overcome by Tesco and the many agencies involved in related planning and development proposals.

Instead of hanging on to the hysteria that has built around the anti-Tesco campaign, surely it is time to find some 'wriggle room' in Tesco planning, as a space within which we just may be able to negotiate on behalf of the community. Let us try to secure the best deal we can as Section 106 money comes into play and opportunities to raise independent funds arise.

We can all recount scare stories about Tesco projects elsewhere at other times, but we are not 'elsewhere' and the serious commercial situation our town is in will not be helped if we continue to heap criticism on Tesco.

We may have fallen in love with the prospect of a Sainsbury superstore, but they were not exactly economically and politically sensible in drawing up plans on a piece of land they didn't even own.

Tesco is a big player and is in a position to help us out of the commercial doldrums and kick-start growth in Seaton.

We have grown accustomed to seeing winners and losers as our town has struggled to keep a tenuous hold on its future prospects. Progress is a hell of a beast to control.

For E Watson (Pulman's View, September 22nd) to say that the EDDC decision has robbed 'the whole of Seaton', is an arrogant insult to the town. It is surely time to stop crying because we didn't get our way and move forward.

Once again, councillors do not listen

EDITOR — In future years now Tesco has got its foot in the door of Seaton, against all the odds, once again the people who run the councils for us do not listen to the masses they represent as shown in the last meeting at the town hall.

What we would like to know is that it was stated that the premises would be bigger than the stores at Axminster and Honiton, why?

Is it going to be part of the depot that they could not get permission to build at Honiton? Our town is smaller so why a bigger store than Axminster and Honiton?

I cannot see customers coming to Seaton if there is a Tesco in their area. If 95 per cent of our townspeople were against Tesco where are the customers to come from if we boycott the store?

I have not used Tesco in the past and am satisfied with the Co-op.

If Tesco is built I shall still use the Co-op. I have never used supermarket fuel due to its inferiority and only use the established fuel companies' merchandise.

A shop is only as good as its customers and if such a time as Tesco has to close, suggestions, please, of what we could use the premises for.

What about parts of it being used as council offices, a Jurassic Coast centre or perhaps a cinema or theatre. Meeting rooms for local organisations a dance hall or gymnasium.

The use is endless all for the enhancement of the town rather than a supermarket.

The dog ban is necessary

EDITOR — I hope the new EDDC ban on dogs in Seaton's Seafeld Gardens, coming into effect on October 1st, will cause irresponsible dog-owners a pang of guilt.

I go through Seafeld Gardens every day, and see so many responsible owners walking their dogs on a lead and cleaning up after them.

Sadly, far too often, unsightly, unhygienic little deposits have also been left on and around the putting green, for someone else to clear away — some of them furtively at night under cover of darkness, others in the early morning. Because of these, the ban is welcome and necessary; but I do feel sorry for the considerate owners who will also suffer.

Great tasting cider

A SHUTE-PRODUCED cider was triumphant when crowned winner of the Best Speciality category at The Great Taste Awards 2009 (Southwest).

Lyme Bay Winery's Jack Ratt Scrumpy faced stiff competition from entries including chesses, biscuits and more.

Lyme Bay Winery owner Nigel Howard switched jobs from city stock broker to westcountry cider maker in 1992. He started from scratch with a complete lack of experience, taking it step by step.

Nigel attended a number of courses and got valuable advice from his experienced mentor, Julian Temperley of Somerset Cider Brandy.

Nigel, whose cider also won a three-star gold award, says the main difference between Jack Ratt Scrumpy and more industrially produced ciders is that it's made purely from whole apple juice. He explained: "Some of the ciders that are made by an industrial process haven't seen an apple — they are made from concentrated juice, with caramel for colouring, sugar, water and a bit of flavouring."

The Great Taste Awards is organised annually by the Guild of Fine Food with more than 100 leading chefs, cookery writers, retail buyers and other food and drink specialists judging thousands of foods in a process lasting several months. The best products are awarded one, two or three gold stars.

♦ JULIAN Rinaldi outside the newly-expanded village store

Village shop bucks trend

BY ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A MUSBURY employer has gone against the national recession trend by taking on four more staff.

The four part-time positions were created as a result of Julian Rinaldi developing the Musbury Garage shop into a SPAR shop.

Julian explained: "The forecourt shop was old fashioned and just did a bit of grocery, confectionery and tobacco, along with some car care products. We had a fair bit of unused space available and I knew it was time to move on."

Julian and SPAR converted the 260sq ft shop into a modern 1,000sq ft forecourt convenience store, appointing Debbie Rees as manager.

The conversion took about eight weeks but trading continued throughout that time.

Combining trading with development was described by Julian as "quite a challenge".

He explained: "At one point there were more builders than customers in the store."

"But we kept going through the dust and noise and customers have been very positive about the changes we have made."

A SPAR spokesperson said: "Neighbouring small villages do not have a convenience store, so Julian's development fills a void, particularly as it is the only shop in three miles that is open on a Sunday."

The project isn't completely finished as a cash machine is about to be installed in the near future.

Julian's parents, Frank and Barbara Rinaldi, bought the site in 1981 and built the business virtually from scratch before retiring 18 months ago.

Julian prepared to take over the business by studying motor vehicle engineering at college, joining the company in 1988.

Don't panic, it's sight day

MEMBERS of the public are asked not to panic when blindfolded people are herded around Axminster on Thursday, October 8th.

They are not prisoners of war, nor hostages — but willing participants in a stunt for Lions World Sight Day. Lions clubs throughout the UK are organising what is called The Largest Blindfolded Walk on Record.

Members of Axminster and District Lions Club will assemble at the Guildhall, where some will be blindfolded and others appointed as escorts.

The aim is for those blindfolded to "step into the unknown" and experience first hand the challenges faced by blind people.

Axminster and District Lions Club president Dave Gale explained: "We will meet at the Guildhall and at 12noon will walk towards the town centre and return. The distance should be 300 metres."

"It is to raise awareness of the plight of blind or poorly sighted people."

"It is not intended to raise money but we will have buckets to collect unwanted spectacles (not specs cases please) which will be sent for recycling to needy locations abroad."

The club hopes to have spectacle collection points in strategic locations for those unable to donate on the day.

More information about this will follow in due course.

Seaton Lions Club will stage a similar event at the same time at Fisherman's gap.

Thieves hit cricket club

CRICKETERS in Honiton have suffered at the hands of thieves who have made off with a specialist piece of equipment.

On Sunday, September 20th, a shed at the cricket club, who play at Mountbatten Park, was broken into and a petrol scarifier was stolen. The theft took place between 1.30pm and 3.30pm. The machine is described as a Mowerland 3.5hp, red in colour but with no cover over the belts.

Andrew Lapping, of Honiton Cricket Club, said: "The machine is used on a cricket square, mainly at the end of the season, and it helps keep the grass down and also flattens the area down if it needs to be re-seeded."

"I was down at the club doing some strimming when I noticed that the shed had been broken into and the machine had been stolen."

"It is not a very valuable piece of equipment in terms of money but it is more the principle really."

"Hopefully the more people that know about the theft the more chance we have of getting the scarifier back."

Honiton police have been made aware of the situation and are investigating.

Anyone with information about where the stolen piece of equipment may be should contact Mr Lapping on 07792 368824.

A taste of Christianity

THE Honiton Community Church will be holding a meeting at the Heathfield Inn, Walnut Road, Honiton, on Tuesday, October 6th, from 7.30pm.

The event will feature a short talk entitled A Taste of Alpha and a free two-course meal is also on offer.

At the end of the evening there will be the opportunity to sign up for a free Christian faith course.

Slimmers paint towns red for ruby celebration

BY ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@tindlenews.co.uk

SLIMMING World members from Lyme Regis, Seaton, Axminster and Bridport groups have celebrated the organisation's 40th anniversary.

Slimming World was launched by Margaret Miles Bramwell OBE in September 1969 when she was just 21.

She set out with just four groups in Derbyshire where the company is still based.

Lyme Regis, Seaton, Axminster and Bridport Slimming World leader Helen Jones said: "We've been celebrating Slimming World's ruby year since January with members doing all sorts of activity: walking, running, swimming and cycling together for charity as part of Slimming World's 40 Miles for Smiles challenge."

"There's been a great buzz all year that has really boosted everyone's motivation and weight loss success."

As part of a UK-wide initiative, members of the various groups also staged special celebratory meetings at the end of September and early October.

More than 500,000 people across the UK were expected to attend one of the special events at Slimming World between Monday, September 28th and Saturday, October 3rd in what organisers hope will qualify as a Guinness World Record for the world's biggest ever birthday party.

For more information about your local group or events, call Helen on 01297 34714 or visit www.slimmingworld.com.

In the editor's shoes

KATE ERIN MEW

Good deed for the day

DOING a good deed not only gives one a feeling of warmth inside but also stops local newspaper editors hitting the headlines for all the wrong reasons.

Let me explain. My Lovely Farmer and I trekked out to the east Devon village of Dalwood the weekend before last for a meal at the reputable Tucker's Arms with his family to celebrate the birthday of his dad — Farmer Jon.

We picked Farmer Jon and his good lady wife up at their farm and made our way across the A35 to Dalwood. Due to an untimely concrete delivery at the farm, this made us a little later than expected meaning we were travelling to the pub around 8 o'clock. We are all too aware of the wintry nights beginning to draw in so, by this time, it was dark.

Trundling up the winding lanes of the village, we were suddenly waved down by a young couple on foot. In the dark. They asked us where the Tucker's Arms was to which My Lovely Farmer's mother replied to by hurling some directions at them from the back of the car. She told them to take the next left, then right in a can't-miss-it fashion.

The couple seemed happy with this and didn't look too cross as we drove away not offering them a lift — although we were going to the same place — because we had a full car.

A little way along the lane, as we passed the first right-hand turn, My Lovely Farmer, who was driving, stopped and asked his mother if we were supposed to take that turn to which she replied not.

It then dawned on the four people in our car that we had sent this poor young couple, who clearly didn't have a clue where they should be headed, on a wild pub chase. We drove a further two miles or so and finally arrived at the Tucker's having decided we ought to drop the parents off and return to try and find the lost duo.

As we drove through the pitch darkness — no street lamps in country lanes, you know — I started to panic, thinking we might have missed them and now never find them.

Oh no, I was sure to be on the news and in the paper for all the wrong reasons — I could see the headlines now: Abandoned holiday couple suffer night-long ordeal after being left for dead.

My relief was evident as we finally came across the pair in what must have felt like the depths of the countryside to them.

The relief of the young pair — holidaying with their parents at the nearby Andewshayes Caravan Park — was also evident as they realised we were clearly not serial killers and we explained we had sent them in the wrong direction.

They were glad of a lift to the pub and as we all relaxed and enjoyed an excellent meal at the Tucker's Arms safe in the knowledge that our consciences were clear and I wouldn't be reading or writing any guilt-related missing person story the following week.

The pair were still in the dining room when we all left — our bellies full and happy. They waved goodbye, thanked us for possibly the hundredth time and informed us they would most certainly be getting a taxi back to the campsite. Very wise.

Nostalgia of the railways

ON Wednesday, September 16th, Axminster Art Society met in Musbury Village Hall for a lecture-demonstration by Paul Howard on Railway Nostalgia.

Paul explained to the group that he had been fascinated by the railways from a very early age, and indeed used to help his father working in a signal-box as a young boy.

He arrived by train to give his lecture, having travelled that day from Lincolnshire.

He had several of his acrylic paintings to show, all relating to railways, with pictures of several very famous railway engines.

He went on to demonstrate how to produce such pictures, using water-colour pencils.

He told of two types produced by Derwent — standard water-colour pencils, of which there are several varieties, whose colours are not permanent, and Inkense pencils, which produce very strong and powerful permanent colours.

He gave detailed advice on how to use them, and painted, with some of these pencils, on the textured paper he recommended, a very acceptable railway picture.

The group learned quite a lot about the use of these pencils.

The next lecture-demonstration will take place on Wednesday, October 21st at 2.15pm in Musbury Village Hall when Alex Adams will be instructing members on the subject of Chinese Brushwork.

Visitors are welcome (£4). Contact Sue Linton on 01297 34095 for more information.

On October 30th and 31st, the autumn exhibition will be held at Axe Valley Community College.

A woodwork lesson for WI

IN September, James Verner gave a presentation and talk to Thorncombe WI about his skills as a cabinet maker.

He told of the selection, preparation and seasoning of trees, for many years, and then how he came to put together the various wonderful colours and textures of the different woods into his exquisite furniture.

The group saw photographs of magnificent dining tables and chairs, beds, cabinets and chests of drawers and members were transported into the fantasy of having the means and then the surroundings in which to use and display the pieces.

Mrs Arnold gave a report on the success of the cream teas at Chapel Thatch throughout the summer and read out some letters of appreciation from the visitors.

On October 27th, to support the National Federation's resolution to highlight the plight of the dwindling numbers of honey bees in the country, Thorncombe WI will hold a coffee morning in the village hall from 10.30am until 12noon for Bee Awareness.

Visitors are encouraged to come and support the WI and perhaps buy some honey cakes. Bee keepers and honey producers need all the help they can get.

The September competition for a small wooden object was won by Sheila Staples and Mavis Stephens won flower of the month.

The next meeting is on October 13th in the village hall at 7.30pm. It will be an invitation evening so please bring a friend or invite a new member. Malcolm Walsh will talk about Canine Partners, dogs that give a special helping paw. The competition will be for a pet picture.

Memories of a bygone era

THE English are renowned for their love of afternoon tea as anyone who has been to venues such as Lyons Corner House or the Ritz, in London, will testify.

A talk given by Peggy Cooke to the Axminster Women's Section of the Royal British Legion at the September meeting evoked memories of a bygone era when tea played an important part of daily life.

Peggy, born in the 1930s to a Devonian family, enjoyed her first brew by proxy, when matron made tea for Peggy's mother, following her daughter's timely arrival at the local hospital.

This was a time when a celebratory drink did not elude to an alcoholic one. Tea was a wonderful tonic and cured all ills.

The family attended chapel, as opposed to church and many non-conformists signed the pledge and were avid tea drinkers both at home and in chapel.

Peggy regaled the group with stories of chapel teas, obviously a highspot during the year when local farmers' wives would provide cream and butter for scones and cook Bromley fruit cake, the taste of which remains unrivalled today, plus other wonderful homemade sponges and seed cakes.

As many readers will recall, children did not reach in front of adults to grab cakes, they waited to be offered a plate.

They certainly did not speak with their mouth full.

Good behaviour featured greatly on these occasions and woe betide a child who embarrassed their mother in front of others!

The story of afternoon tea at Dellers, Exeter, struck a chord with many members, who remembered the tea shop with great affection, recalling the Palm Court Orchestra (a trio) which provided subtle background music.

Senior group gets its very own name

ON Monday, September 7th Axminster Senior's Forum met under its new name.

Whilst still under the umbrella of the Senior Council for Devon, it has been given the go-ahead to have its own name.

Being an independent body it was felt that the term 'council' had given members of the public the wrong impression.

Though originally set up by Devon County Council and still funded by the government through the council, people were under the impression that it was run by the council.

It is an entirely independent group trying to identify the aims and needs of the over-50s while working with other bodies to help people with problems if not always solving them, helping put people on the right track to finding the solution.

Sally Loughern, administrator for the Senior Council, who was visiting the group, gave the Senior's Forum the go-ahead to use the new name. She told members about her role in the Senior Council dealing with the 26 groups in Devon and all that it is involved with.

A tribute was paid to Ms Griffin who had died suddenly at home. She had taken up the challenge once again with Tesco about a town bus and with Sue Waters had obtained an interview with the manager. She will be missed at the Axminster Senior's Forum.

Computer classes were now being finalised with the Axe Valley waitresses in black dresses, crisp white aprons with lace and velvet caps, served tea and cakes, assisted by a grand lady dressed in a long velvet black dress, who showed customers to their seats.

Sadly, Dellers is no more, having suffered a direct hit by the Luftwaffe during the Second World War.

Peggy recalled the first time she saw a chocolate éclair, sadly, for her, devoured by her older sister, Dorothy, and her own treat of an enormous meringue, sandwiched with cream on a plate of fancies.

What the trio below thought of the meringue disintegrating over their heads from above as she bit into it has not been recorded for posterity but no doubt the crochets and quavers quivered somewhat at the onslaught.

In the 1970s, Peggy had a change in career from working with Cadburys and Bourneville, where, incidentally, she as office junior who made, not surprisingly, the teas, when she opened a tea shop in East Budleigh.

Mentioned in dispatches by Egon Ronay over 10 years, Peggy ran her highly successful and acclaimed tearoom for 17 years, producing, in addition to homemade cakes and meals, preserves and chutneys galore.

Following her retirement from the tea shop in 1993, but still enjoying pots of tea and cakes in other establishments, Peggy undertook work in hospitals as a Chaplaincy Visitor on Elderly Acute wards.

She still gives talks today on various subjects, has preached recently in the United Reform Church, Axminster, and shows no sign of taking life easy. Her remedy for relaxing with friends — a nice cup of tea.

Amen to that; the group's thanks to Peggy for a highly entertaining evening, providing much jollity, accompanied of course, by a cup of tea.

Breast cancer survivor Jan tells her story

BY BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

A WOMAN from Honiton who survived breast cancer is backing a new campaign being launched by Cancer Research UK.

The charity campaign is called 'Join the fight for women's survival'.

Author Jan Guscott, of Chestnut Way, has penned her latest novel and it tells the story of her fight for survival against breast cancer — proceeds from the sale of the book will go to Cancer Research UK.

Mrs Guscott said: "The spring of 2008 brought with it the greatest crisis of my life, when a breast lump was investigated and found to be malignant and this began my battle to survive. But thanks to research, I am here today.

"Breast cancer affects so many women every year. I want to encourage everyone to join the fight for women's survival to help by raising money for Cancer Research UK's work to find new ways of treating, curing and preventing the disease."

Mrs Guscott added that she decided to write about her experience of battling breast cancer in the hope that it might inspire other women who are fighting the disease.

She said: "I decided to write about my journey in the hope that others would benefit from my cancer experience and, at the very least, be able to give something back to help Cancer Research UK.

"An Uplifting Experience is a personal account of my journey, I have tried to write it with honesty and lots of humour and hope that it will be an inspiration to all who read it."

Dawn Harrison, Cancer Research UK's area volunteer manager for Devon, added: "We need everyone in Devon to join the fight for women's survival.

"Our research is beating breast cancer. We need you to help us fight harder.

"There are lots of ways to get involved. We have created a special fundraising pack, full of ideas, to help you."

For more information about how you can help raise funds, visit www.jointhefight.org.uk or contact 08701 60 20 40.

INTERVIEW WITH TOP, CLASSIC MOTOR CROSS RIDER TIM DALLAWAY

First of all for those of us who know nothing about the sport would you be able to tell us a little bit about it?

Well its classic motocross, motocross but on classic bikes, most of which were built pre 1965. The races are separated by the year of the bike and the size of the engine. Each class has 3 races consisting of 4 laps throughout the day. First place scores 15 points, 2nd 12points, 3rd 10points and so on. Basically the rider with the most points after all three races wins.

What are you expected to do?

I am expected to win as many races as possible. I don't usually ride down this way, I do the welsh championship and the British championship which is all over the country, so when I race down here everyone expects me to do well.

How old were you when you got into motor cross, and what would your advice be for someone else who wanted to get into it?

I first rode a bike when I was 3yrs old, but didn't start racing until I was about 11 or 12. I've been around motocross all my life though, my Grandad used to race and was really good, he got my dad into it who was also very good, and now I do it and I'm also good! I'm the third generation in our family to race motocross. I'm now 18 and one of the youngest riders in classic motocross.

What has been your overall highlight?

Winning the 2008 350cc British Classic Scrambles

Championship. I've also won a few "one off " meetings, which only run once a year. I'm very proud of some of these meetings and the trophies I've won.

Have you ever had a bad accident?

I've been very lucky, and haven't had any major accidents yet (touch wood) but I had one once where I came off and another rider went straight into my ribs, I spent the day in hospital!

What do you hope to achieve in the future?

I think in classic motocross you don't really get very far as its not as well known or talked about as modern motocross. I would love to win the unlimited (any size engine) British championship, and also ride abroad. I will be riding on Sunday the 11th October on a 650cc Triumph. There are some more big names coming down such as Tim Manton, my brother in law.

Why go to a Chiropractor?

Well, what do you normally do if you have a pain? First of all wait and see if it goes away? Good idea and often it does.

But what if it doesn't? You may go to your GP and get some painkillers, some good advice and perhaps some exercises from the physio. Often this will work.

But what if it doesn't, or your problem keeps recurring? Who can you turn to?

The Chiropractor of course — but, honestly, how can he (or she) help?

Chiropractors look at the way the whole body, and especially the joints of the spine, work, how it functions. They use their hands to identify and understand fully what is causing your problem. Once this is established they can then remedy it by gently — yes, gently — moving the joints and muscles (called an adjustment) so that they work properly.

Chiropractors believe that the power that made the body heals the body. Chiropractic adjustments can remove the blocks to proper healing taking place so benefiting overall health.

It is an accepted therapy and one that is recognised by the medical profession. Due to Gabrielle's own health issues, she uses both disciplines as and when needed. When she was first introduced to hypnotherapy, she was amazed at how effective it can be.

Every client is unique, and the therapy is tailored to suit their needs. Gabrielle finds it very rewarding seeing how hypnotherapy can help people deal with their issues, and enhance their quality of life. Hypnotherapy facilitates the body and 'everyday' mind to relax, yet allows the client to feel in complete control with a heightened sense of awareness.

What is Osteopathy?

Osteopathy recognises the importance of the link between the structure of the body and the way it functions. Considering each person as an individual, osteopaths focus on the body's skeleton and joint function along with the underlying muscles, soft tissue and internal organs.

Utilising a highly developed sense of touch, osteopaths identify the problem areas of the body. Using gentle stretching techniques, as well as manipulating joints, an osteopath works with the body to create the perfect conditions for healing to take place.

On your first visit, a full medical case history will be taken. An examination will be carried out and you may then be asked to perform a few simple movements so the osteopath can assess the problem. The osteopath will make a diagnosis and discuss it with you. If osteopathic treatment is suitable, it will be aimed at helping to restore normal joint stability and function.

All osteopaths must have demonstrated to their registering body — The General Osteopathic Council (GOsC) — that they are a safe and competent practitioner. Osteopaths have to train for a minimum of four years. They also have to carry out continuing professional development in order to stay registered. It is a criminal offence to call yourself an osteopath unless you are registered.

Christina runs a weekly circuits class for both men and women, helping them to improve their fitness and strength and enabling them to tone up their bodies. It is a very fun, social class as you move to each circuit area and can chat along the way. It is suitable for people who are just starting to exercise again and those who have a level of fitness as each individual chooses how hard they work. For example you can increase or decrease the weights and / or do more or less repetitions. This is a whole body workout in a fun environment, which helps people (even those who dread exercise) to enjoy it and achieve their personal fitness goals.

In addition Christina is a qualified netball coach, she plays for and sponsors a team called Bo Peeps. With the help of the members of this team she runs a ladies netball club for fun, this is another great way to get fit. The club is open to ladies, 16 years and upwards. Come along, it's on a Thursday night from 7-8pm at Colyton sports centre. Don't worry if you haven't played for years, it's just for fun!

Podiatrist is the up-to-date name for chiropodist, they are exactly the same and in time Podiatrist will be the only term used.

I have practised as a Podiatrist all my working life and therefore I have a wealth of working knowledge and experience behind me. I ran my own, busy private practice in Taunton town centre for many years.

I can effectively treat & relieve pain for the vast majority of problematic foot conditions that I see. These might be painful corns, callouses, verrucae, wounds, ingrown toe nails and other skin problems.

I can also help with pain associated with deeper foot structures and structural malfunctions of the feet.

I supply corrective/supportive insoles where indicated. For most patients these can be "off-the-shelf", heat mouldable ones costing no more than a pair of shoes which can make a world of difference to your daily activities. They can also have additions to customise them.

I also provide foot measuring and shoe fitting advice and a nail cutting service at a reduced rate.

Healthy Feet

How your feet feel can be a sign of your general health. Foot pain may be an indication of a more serious condition so it is essential to be alert to the warning signs.

It's important to put "your best foot forward." Be kind to your feet. Years of wear and tear can be hard on feet. So can disease, bad circulation, poorly trimmed toenails, and wearing shoes that don't fit correctly. Foot problems are sometimes the first sign of more serious medical conditions such as arthritis, diabetes, and nerve or circulatory disorders. Other conditions such as Plantar Fasciitis (a painful inflammatory condition) and Morton's Neuroma (an enlarged nerve at the base of the foot) may also be indicated.

Healthy Feet based in Axminster is a Private Chiropody and Podiatry clinic specialising in assessing, diagnosing and treating abnormalities and diseases of the lower limb. They treat patients of all ages.

All of their treatments are carried out by a fully qualified and State Registered Podiatrist with over 25 years experience of treating conditions of the lower limb.

The Axminster based practise also specialise and run a Foot Pain Clinic, where they provide an innovative service to alleviate foot pain. They are the only clinic outside the USA and in the South West of England to operate the 3D Optical Laser Foot Scanner and Computer Diagnostic System which is amongst the most advanced available in the world today.

If you suffer from foot pain or would like to discuss an appointment call their receptionist Nicola, today on 01297 631043. www.axminsterchiropody.co.uk

NOW OPEN IN NEW PREMISES IN LYME ROAD, AXMINSTER

An Axminster based clinic's 3D Optical laser Foot scanner and Computer Diagnostic System, some of the most advanced in the world, form part of an innovative service to alleviate foot pain.

Feet can cause us real pain and we may not even know it!

We only have one pair of feet and they take us everywhere so it pays to take good care of them, but most of us don't give our feet a second thought.... that is until they hurt!

Once our feet are hurting most of us have no idea how to eliminate the pain. Untreated this can lead to long term problems, many problems associated with the foot are the result of a faulty relationship between the bones and the muscles of the foot. Misalignment can result in a number of problems, commonly flat feet, persistent ankle sprains, bunions, corns, calluses, even symptoms that one would not normally associate with feet such as stress and pain in the back, neck, hips and knees.

AT HEALTHY FEET CHIROPODY AND PODIATRY WE PRESCRIBE AND ISSUE THE VERY BEST FOOT ORTHOTICS USING THE MOST TECHNICALLY ADVANCED EQUIPMENT AVAILABLE ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD TODAY. OUR 3D OPTICAL LASER FOOT SCANNER AND COMPUTER DIAGNOSTIC SYSTEM IS JUST ONE INNOVATIVE METHOD WE USE AGAINST FOOT PAIN IN OUR AXMINSTER BASED FOOT CLINIC.

SO WHAT ARE ORTHOTICS?

Orthotics, are special footwear inserts that are individually designed and manufactured to ease your pain and discomfort. They promote the proper alignment of the feet, restore balance, improve sports performance and alleviate pain in the knee, hip and lower back.

HOW DO ORTHOTICS WORK?

As your foot sits comfortably on our orthotic it is gently and consistently directed into the optimum position allowing the foot to function correctly when walking, running and standing.

AT HEALTHY FEET CHIROPODY AND PODIATRY OUR PRESCRIPTION ORTHOTICS ARE MADE TO THE HIGHEST STANDARDS AVAILABLE USING MODERN TECHNOLOGY, ARE COMPLETELY ACCURATE AND PROVIDE THE VERY BEST CORRECTIVE TREATMENT AVAILABLE. Our 3D Optical Laser Foot Scanner replaces the need for traditional plaster casting and drawing around the foot, methods still in use today which are messy, inaccurate, costly and utilizing materials of limited life, requiring frequent replacement. We successfully treat many foot conditions but one common foot condition we see a lot of at our Axminster based clinic is PLANTAR FASCIITIS. When your first few steps out of bed in the morning cause severe pain in the heel of your foot, you may have plantar fasciitis (fashee-EYE-tiss). It's an overuse injury affecting the sole or flexor surface (plantar) of the foot. A diagnosis of plantar fasciitis means you have inflamed the tough, fibrous band of tissue (fascia) connecting your heel bone to the base of your toes. You're more likely to get the condition if you're overweight, or if you have a job that requires a lot of walking or standing on hard surfaces. You're also at risk if you walk or run for exercise, especially if you have tight calf muscles that limit how far you can flex your ankles. People with very flat feet or very high arches are also more prone to plantar fasciitis.

The condition starts gradually with mild pain at the heel bone often referred to as a stone bruise. You're more likely to feel it after (not during) exercise. The pain classically occurs again after arising from a midday lunch break.

If you don't treat plantar fasciitis, it may become a chronic condition. You may not be able to keep up your level of activity and you may also develop symptoms of foot, knee, hip and back problems because of the way plantar fasciitis changes the way you walk.

REMEMBER YOUR FEET ARE THE FOUNDATION FOR YOUR ENTIRE BODY.
If you suffer from foot pain and/or would like to discuss an assessment please call us at Healthy Feet on Community barn dance makes profit with some fantastic music

A BARN dance in aid of Axminster Tourist Information Centre and Hospiscare attracted about 80 dancers.

Dartmoor Pixie Band, pictured with some of the dancers, returned to the Guildhall by popular demand and played until 11.30pm on Friday, September 18th.

Sarah Crook of Axminster TIC said the final amount raised has not been finalised, but she expects a small profit from the event.

She added: "It was fantastic music and people were dancing continuously. Folks I've met in town were pleased we put it on again. I would like to thank Liz Purvey of Hospiscare and all of her helpers."

She also praised Terry Fisher at the SPAR shop for donating 100 rolls for the meal.

Turnout high at 'bird ring'

BY ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A BIRD ringing event at Colyford Common Local Nature Reserve attracted 35 people.

Axe Estuary Ringing Group was in charge of the event and those present ringed two robins, five chiffchaffs, four dunnocks, two sedge warblers, two kingfishers, six goldfinches, one blackbird, one treecreeper and two great tits.

The bird ringing session took place on Saturday, September 19th.

Finely meshed 'mist' nets were used to catch the birds.

The birds were quickly removed from the nets and carefully weighed and measured before having a leg ring attached, containing a unique identity sequence.

East Devon District Council owns the reserve and a spokesperson said: "The information collected provides valuable data about birds and their patterns of behaviour."

"The treecreeper was the highlight of the day as it was the first one for the group."

The photo shows a young sedge warbler, which are often found on Colyford Common according to the EDDC spokesperson.

The spokesperson added: "At this time of year they are rapidly gaining weight in preparation for their migration to equatorial Africa, a round trip of 7,000 miles."

"They can double in weight from their usual 10g to around 20g — in fact, one bird was caught twice 24 hours apart and had gained 1.5g in that time."

"That may not sound much but we would struggle to put on 15 per cent of our bodyweight in 24 hours."

"They are insect eaters so the current rise in insect numbers will be good for them."

TONY JACKSON

Excitement of twitchers

THERE was excitement amongst bird watchers when, at dawn on September 19th, six black silhouettes in the far corner of Blackhole Marsh were revealed as Glossy Ibis.

They remained on the marsh for half-an-hour and then flew on to feed on flooded fields to the east of the river before pitching up at Colyford Common. Departing at around 2pm, they were next seen briefly at Radipole and were then tracked over Pennington Marsh in Hampshire. Two days later five Glossy Ibis were spotted at Dungeness, Kent, but the sixth seems to have disappeared.

In fact, although exciting, this sighting is not so unusual. Coward (1945) notes that Glossy Ibis, which breed in central and southern Europe, Africa and the southern United States are frequent autumn and occasional spring visitors to the south and east coasts, and have even been reported in Scotland. They have obviously been sufficiently obvious on occasion for the old-time marshmen to call them "black curlews" and, doubtless, in the days of the bird collectors, with gun in hand, they would have pursued any one seen.

Another rarity spotted, again on Blackhole Marsh, was a pectoral sandpiper, and it is obvious that this new reserve is proving its worth in terms of numbers of birds and rarities.

Rarities in our region are not just confined to birds, for there has now been a rare fish sighting in Poole Bay. A local diver, Suzanne Munnely, was engaged on a Seasearch wildlife survey in September with the Dorset Wildlife Trust when she saw and photographed an unusual fish lurking by a small reef.

Later examination of the photograph revealed the fish to be a rare couch's goby, a species which has only been recorded in a handful of places round Britain, including south Cornwall, north-west Ireland and in very sheltered areas in southern Ireland.

This goby only grows up to about three inches and feeds on algae, worms and small crustaceans and, due to its rarity is fully protected under the Wildlife and Countryside Act. As a result of this sighting sea search surveyors will now be looking out for further specimens in our area to see if it is doing well.

Here at home red admirals, the odd tortoiseshell and painted ladies are still to be seen whenever the sun shines and there is some warmth in the air, while bumble and honey bees continue to make the most of a second showing of pink flowers on my escallonia hedges.

The garden pond is looking rather tired now and requires a thorough clean before the winter and I can safely scoop out great clumps of algae secure in the knowledge that the palatine newts will all have vanished into grass clumps and under rocks and logs to hibernate for the winter.

Only a few weeks ago a scoop with a net revealed numerous baby newts amidst the green strands of weeds and algae.

Just a reminder to watch out for hedgehogs if you are having a bonfire, and burning piles of leaves and rubbish, the sort of seemingly safe refuge where a hog might have retired for its winter sleep.

Hedgehogs are still on the move, stocking up on worms and slugs for the months ahead, and only the other evening, while driving through the middle of Beaminster I spotted a hedgehog sedately trotting across the road in the middle of the town, fortunately without being flattened.

Sadly, I have seen not a single slow worm this summer past, and not even a grass snake. Up to a year or two ago, slow worms were frequently seen amongst the rocks set into a hedgerow but now they, like so much of our wildlife which was formerly abundant seem to have dwindled in numbers. Do any readers, I wonder, still retain populations of these legless lizards?

Less than one in four think their say counts

BY BEN MIDDLETON
ben@hindlenews.co.uk

INDEPENDENT members of East Devon District Council (EDDC) have expressed alarm at an opinion poll that shows that less than one in four east Devon residents believe that they can influence decisions in their local area.

The results of the Place Survey puts east Devon in 168th position amongst 201 district councils. The figures show that out of the 1,263 people who responded to the survey, only 24.8 per cent of people feel they can influence decisions.

Roger Giles, independent district councillor for Ottery St Mary, said: "Our democracy is very precious, but it is also difficult and needs to be worked at. We councillors have to work hard to engage with the electorate, to listen to what they want, and to try to meet their aspirations.

"Distressing as these findings are, I suspect that they would have been even worse if the survey had taken place this year. Many people in east Devon and elsewhere were deeply unhappy at the behaviour of MPs and the scandal over their expenses.

"Some of that feeling unfairly attaches to local government."

Mr Giles added: "We must have a changed mindset. There must be genuine consultation with people about what they want, and this must be at the beginning of the process - asking people what they think of completed council proposals is not genuine consultation.

"We must also press central government hard to devolve powers, so that local elected councillors who live in and know their communities can make decisions based on their constituents' needs and desires.

"The bureaucrat 200 miles away in London, most certainly does not know best."

A spokesman for EDDC added: "Taken out of context, this individual result could be perceived in a negative way. However, the actual message the statistic gives us is not anywhere near so negative and should also not be linked directly with EDDC

"In order to find out what lies behind the Place Survey statistic referred to by councillor Giles, members of EDDC's communities overview and scrutiny committee have asked officers to contact those who gave a negative answer and to ask for more details of any issues they may have.

"The question asked was: 'Do you agree or disagree that you can influence decisions affecting your local area?'

"The question is about east Devon as a place rather than EDDC in particular. The answers will therefore reflect people's feelings about the PCT, police, county council, voluntary and community organisations, decisions taken by national bodies and national government and so on.

"This question is not about a lack of confidence in local government within east Devon and it would be wrong to portray it that way.

"The results of the Place Survey overall are positive for EDDC.

"The question highlighted by councillor Giles is quite vague and so we cannot be sure what the results mean.

"As recommended by members of the communities overview and scrutiny committee, we will be going back to the respondents in the survey who strongly disagreed with the statement to ask them why they gave the answer that they gave. Until it is known why they answered in this way, we cannot definitely identify where action needs to be taken - or by whom."

the churches

With Nigel Speller

OCTOBER sees the first meeting of the Exeter Diocesan Synod of this triennium, when members were elected last summer.

The Diocesan Synod has been described as the church's mini parliament for the Diocese of Exeter.

Members are elected by the clergy and laity respectively but it does not mean that the church is a democracy in the full sense of the word. It is sometimes called government by discussion.

The Bishop of Exeter is the president and he is assisted by a clergy and a lay vice-president.

Honiton Deanery sends five lay members and three clergy to the new Synod. There are similar bodies locally.

First are Deanery Synods covering all the parishes in the Honiton Deanery, and then in each parish the local body is the Parochial Church Council. Members of the Diocesan Synod and the Deanery Synods are ex-officio members of their local Parochial Church Councils.

Honiton Deanery Synod with its representatives of the 30-plus churches in east Devon also meets soon. Its meeting is on Thursday, November 19th at 7.30pm at Yarcombe Village Hall, and the topic is The Bible Society — non-members are always welcome. Synod has just appointed a new Secretary, Sarah Johnson as successor to Graham Jones of Combyne.

More meetings — the people of the parishes of the Colyton Benefice meet together on October 20th to consider the way forward for their churches, especially the provision of lay leaders. It is hoped this vital meeting will be well attended.

Time to consider the inner person... leisure lunches in Colyton, started by the late Caroline Turner, start again on Thursday, November 26th at 12.30pm in the Sunday School Building. Two-course lunches and coffee and tea are £5. Please sign up in advance in St Andrew's Church.

Most churches have one, but they answer to different names — sacristan, caretaker, or vergers.

The name vergers derives from the job of the person who carried the verge or mace (being the staff of authority) in procession, and also looked after the church.

Sometimes the name is spelt 'virger' as in the case of Exeter Cathedral. The vergers have particular duties at some of the occasional services such as funerals.

At Colyton church there is a voluntary sacristan who looks after such things as altar linen and candles. This church has now appointed the following two joint-vergers especially for duty at weddings and funerals. They are Sandie Parsons and Stephen Hooper.

They were both commissioned for duty at a recent Sunday service.

A humorous schoolboy definition of 'verger' is 'someone who minds their keys and pews'.

Members of the Church of Rome are glad to hear that Pope Benedict XVI is to make an official visit to Britain next year.

It will be only the second papal visit since Henry VIII broke with Rome and established the Church of England 475 years ago.

A series of events is being planned which will certainly attract thousands of spectators.

There are some four million Roman Catholics in Britain. On the last papal visit, Pope John Paul II said mass at the old Wembley Stadium before a congregation of thousands. The new stadium will accommodate 90,000. Other details of the visit are not yet public but the visit could be timed to coincide with the process to beatify Cardinal Newman, the Anglican convert to Catholicism of whom the present pope is a keen student. There is no word at present of a visit to the Westcountry but watch this space.

Weekly prayers at Colyton have been held in St Michael's Church for some years. From October 2nd this weekly occasion moves to Elmwood (opposite the church) every Friday at 10am. All are welcome to join the residents and there will be refreshments.

The bells will ring out again

THE bells will ring out at Membury Baptist Church once again.

Four bells at the church have been restored and refitted — at a cost of more than £24,000.

The restoration work was paid for through village fundraising events, grants and church money.

The bells have been away from the church for several months and were delivered back to the village on Monday, September 28th.

Church warden Debbie Burroughs said: "It's such a wonderful thing to think that the bells have been restored and are back in the church and back in the village."

"Thank you to everyone who has helped us raise the money to get the bells restored."

◆ A GROUP of churchgoers with the refurbished bells, above. Left, the first of the bells is hauled up to the church

Firms discuss diploma idea with college for students

ABOUT 20 Axminster businesses took the opportunity to discuss the ins and outs of helping Axe Valley Community College deliver Business Administration and Finance (BAF) diplomas.

A business breakfast was staged at the college on Friday, October 2nd to seek business partners for the project.

It was explained that schools and colleges in mid and east-Devon have been developing a strategy to deliver new diploma lines for the 14-19 age level.

Literature handed out at the event explained: "This Gateway 4 bid, requiring government approval, must demonstrate employer links to provide the practical as well as theoretical learning that must be delivered."

In short, businesses are asked to take on students for work-based learning — but businesses able to give a speech at the college, provide case studies or host one-off workplace visits are also sought.

Axe Valley Community College's Ben Pugsley said he was delighted with the response and added: "I feel we can submit a meaningful application to deliver the diplomas."

Any businesses which are interested in finding out more can call the college on 01297 32146 and ask for Darren Holland.

Alexander Paul

The team at Alexander Paul Antiques would like to invite readers of 'View From....' to visit our showroom at Fenny Bridges. At Alexander Paul we specialise in sourcing country style dining and coffee tables which are traditionally made of chestnut, oak and cherry. However we also carry a wide range of other styles of furniture and are often successful in sourcing specific pieces requested by clients. Our highly skilled restoration team are also available to work on your own pieces of furniture.

We are easy to find: first left off the west-bound A30 past Honiton, with plenty of on-site parking available.

Antique furniture represents extremely good value even when compared to most mass-market modern furniture, and a better investment than contemporary or reproductions.

Of course for most people the choice is an aesthetic one, having an appreciation for furniture with character that has developed through hundreds of years.

The subtle shades of colour, changes in texture and the faint smell of beeswax all create a superb sensory experience that anyone can enjoy.

Magazines that focus on 'interiors' and 'lifestyle' are writing features about the increasing number of discerning people who are buying pieces of antique furniture to place in more modern homes.

The juxtaposition of a well-chosen piece of antique furniture placed in a modern setting, where it can be discretely lit by spotlights, will often show the piece off to better advantage than in a more traditional setting. For example a beautiful aged and mellow farmhouse dining table and chairs will wonderfully soften the lines of a modern kitchen.

We look forward to meeting you and assisting in obtaining just the right piece of fabulous furniture for your home.

Homes & Interiors

NJ Whittaker Ltd

NJ WHITTAKER remain very busy and are reassured by the number of enquiries they are still receiving. Although the reduction in VAT rate to 15% has been widely criticized as pointless anyone considering extending or renovating their property will save £ 250 for every £10,000 spent so for a bigger outlay there can be a significant saving. Combined with very competitive quotations from builders and historically low interest rates it has never been a better time to invest in your property providing you can get the funding.

HAVE YOU GOT A BUILDING QUESTION YOU NEED ANSWERED?

Each month on our Homes and Interiors feature we shall have a new helpful section with Nick Whittaker of N.J. Whittaker Ltd. in Honiton who is an experienced and fully qualified builder who will answer your questions. This can be anything from DIY queries, a query about new laws and regulations, to a dispute with a builder you have at the moment. Please either email your questions to kelly@pemedial.co.uk or post them to:

Kelly Baker, View From Publishing Ltd., Unit 3, St. Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB.

A question will be picked out and answered each month

THIS MONTH'S QUESTION:

I have recently purchased a building plot and was wondering what roofing material to use, what choices are there and what are the relative costs? - M Keeping

ANSWER:

The choice of roof coverings are starting with the cheapest:-

- Concrete interlocking tiles which come in various styles and colours
- Manmade slates which come plain or riven
- Natural slates which come in various sizes
- Concrete plain tiles
- Natural clay plain tiles
- and of course thatch where applicable

You have to also bear in mind that the planners will have to approve the type and colour of roof covering that you propose using and they may have specific ideas on what they want you to use.

A bit of history with a view of the Cobb

CAPTAIN'S House is a fascinating 18th Century Grade II Listed property of historical importance and situated in one of the most sought after locations on the Jurassic coast.

Lyme Regis beach is right outside the door and there are many cafes, shops and restaurants within a short walk as well as the world famous Cobb Harbour. The property has been sympathetically restored and is beautifully presented. Outside is a spacious and very private courtyard garden with steps leading up to the top of the wall, which forms a raised terrace with a direct outlook onto the beach and harbour. The accommodation is versatile and includes 4/5 bedrooms and a beautiful first floor sitting room with direct beach, sea and harbour views.

The property is thought to have been built around 1770, along with a handful of other buildings forming the Cobb Hamlet. Previous to this, no buildings existed in this area. It is believed to have been a lodging house for some time and records show an advertisement in the Sherborne Mercury dated 1796 offering a boarding and lodging house for ladies and gentlemen with "pleasant sea bathing" at Lyme. By 1891, the house was re-named "Apsley House", presumably after the Duke of Wellington's London House, (although no connection has yet been proved) and it was known by this name until the 1970's. There had been a larger house to the east of No. 28 when these properties were first built, however, this house was destroyed in the great storm of 1924. Fortunately, no. 28 survived. It is thought that the house was used for holiday letting in the 20th century and the Lyme Museum has photographs and recollections from someone who stayed there. The current owner has lived in the property for approximately eight years and during this time it has been well maintained and nurtured. This unusual property is offered to the market with a guide price of £725,000 and is well worth a visit.

For more information, please call Gordon and Rumsby on 01297 553768 or visit our website www.gordonandrumsby.co.uk.

The Zagreb Guitar Trio to play in Colyton

Show is part of 25 year celebrations

TAKE three prize-winning solo guitarists, put them through the mill of professional musical life in central Europe, marinate them in a few centuries of classical music for plucked and bowed strings and mature them in a 25-year personal and musical friendship (which miraculously survived the strife and upheaval of the war-torn Yugoslavia in the 1990s), and you have the recipe for the very finest music-making – full of warmth, humour and sensitivity. The Zagreb Guitar Trio this year celebrates 25 years of playing together and it is by the greatest stroke of good luck that they are able to come to East Devon on their current UK tour. In one concert they will wow you with breath-taking virtuosity, amuse you with their witty musical conversation, charm you with meltingly sweet sound and make you fall off your chair with disbelief at their imitation of a full orchestra letting its hair down:

"...a blend of excitement and enjoyment ... the result is a life-enhancing exhilaration for the audience." (Classical Guitar) After their Wigmore Hall recital The Times reported: "The Zagreb group have a sophistication and expertise in their ensemble that makes them very special."

Very special they most certainly are, and anyone who can get to Colyton Town Hall on the evening of October 24th (7.30pm) would be well advised to do so!

The Trio was founded in 1984 and is one of the most renowned Croatian ensembles. They play regularly throughout their native Croatia and in many European countries, have made several CD recordings and have recorded extensively for Croatian Radio. Their wide repertoire embraces numerous works from the renaissance to the avant-garde and includes original 19th century guitar trios, attractive transcriptions and new works. The trio and its members have received several awards for their artistic achievements and recordings, and all pursue individual solo careers as performers, recording artists and pedagogues.

Many new pieces have been written for and dedicated to the Zagreb Guitar Trio by some of the best-known Croatian composers as well as by international composers such as Duarte and Blake Watkins from Great Britain, and Koshkin from Russia.

For this concert in The Feoffees Hall, Colyton, they will be presenting works by Dowland, Vivaldi, Albeniz, Ravel, Ferranti, Blake-Watkins and Dvořák.

Tickets for the event are £9 (£4 for students) from Brainwave, Market Place, Colyton or phone 01297 553238.

The Wheelwright Inn

An idyllic 17th-century thatched cottage is home to the Wheelwright Inn, an exemplary dining pub in the pretty village of Colyford. Gary Valentine and his wife, Toni, have put their heart and soul into this place, and a year ago they refurbished the pub giving it a whole new lease of life.

Network Axminster returns following successful event last year

FOLLOWING last years highly successful event, Axminster Arts are presently again busy organising Network Axminster due to take place at The Guildhall on Saturday, October 10th, this year with extended opening times of 10.00am to 12.30pm, and would like to invite all groups and organisations in the town to take part as well as the public to come along and find out what really goes on in Axminster.

Entry is free both to organisations taking part and the public on the day and refreshments will be served through out the morning courtesy of the Arts Café run by Axminster Arts.

The purpose of Network Axminster is to publicise the many and varied activities, which happen in Axminster and the surrounding area. On the day each organisation taking part will have a table or equivalent space, to enable them to show off exactly what they do and how you can join if interested. Last year over 40 groups took part and it looks like a similar number will be there this year, including many groups who were not present last year.

After last year's event, Axminster Arts produced a database of meeting times and contact details of over 50 organisations which has been available at the Arts Café, Library and TIC since and this will be updated after this year's event and details added of additional organisations that did not respond to their request for details last year. This will also include groups who unfortunately are unable to attend this years Network but nether less want to publicise their details.

This year there will also be a number of demonstrations taking place on the stage throughout the morning and possibly a chance to have a try at something new. Spaces are still available for groups and booking forms can be collected from the Arts Café or by contacting Tim Leat on 01297 35187 or e-mailing Norrlat@aol.com, but most of all the groups taking part would like to see as many residents of Axminster and the surrounding area as possible on the day. Arrangements have been made with the League of Friends of Axminster Hospital to make sure that you can attend both Network and the hospital opening which will both be taking place on the 10th so there is no need to miss either event.

Experience Joe's Power at Axminster Guildhall

For almost a decade, psychic medium Joe Power has used his extraordinary powers to investigate unsolved crimes, including, most recently, the disappearance of Madeleine McCann.

The accuracy of his private readings, public demonstrations, celebrity predictions and crime-solving clues are creating a sensation both here and in the US, where Joe is renowned as the medium who brought through the voice of John Lennon on US TV show, The Spirit of John Lennon. Joe has returned from filming in Tokyo working on two famous police cases. The two hour feature length program will be aired on TBS on the April 28th.

But it wasn't always this way. As a small boy growing up in Liverpool Joe began to have startling visions and out of body experiences. At first he didn't realise that he was the only one experiencing these psychic phenomena. He didn't tell anyone about the visions or the voices in his head, and felt frighteningly alone. Regularly distracted, he became notorious as a disruptive troublemaker. He was constantly being told off by his teachers and was teased and bullied by the other children. Joe was written off as a lost cause. To protect himself, he started to act tough. As a teenager he got caught up in Liverpool's gang culture, started to commit petty crimes, and ended up in a young offender's institution.

Joe denied his psychic abilities until the day one of his brothers was found dead, reportedly from a heroin overdose. Then messages from the spirit world led Joe to see the shocking truth behind the tragedy. . . his brother had been murdered.

This devastating experience marked a turning point for Joe, and made him acutely aware of two things. Firstly, that he could no longer ignore his psychic gift; and secondly, that his own life was in a downward spiral and he needed to make radical changes before something terrible happened to him, too.

Joe now firmly believes that his difficult past was preparation for helping people with all levels of problems. Shortly after his brother's death he vowed to use his psychic power to help solve the murder cases that were leaving detectives baffled, and loved ones without closure.

In The Man Who Sees Dead People he tells the astonishing story of his life for the first time.

An evening of Clairvoyance with Joe Powers takes place at Axminster Guildhall on Tuesday, October 20th. Tickets are £10 (see advert below for more details.)

STREETCAR COMES TO SIDMOUTH

A TENDER moment between Stella (Tanya Rees) and her husband Stanley Kowalski (Marc Colson)

A RARE drama feast for the- atregoers comes with the arrival of A Streetcar Named Desire next week. Sidmouth's Manor Pavilion stages the classic Tennessee Williams play which finished in London's West End on Saturday after a sell-out run.

Set in New Orleans in 1947 this tough but emotional drama vividly portrays the conflict between old values and new materialism as characterized by the famous roles of Blanche Dubois and Stanley Kowalski. After the Broadway debut the award winning play was twice made into films.

David Harrison, the Director of Sidmouth Amateur Dramatic Society's production, says "There will be no punches spared. After a long diet of musicals and comedies this is something for audiences to get their teeth into and they will not be disappointed." He says, "This play is being performed again all over the world with good reason".

Tickets cost £8 (3 for 2 on Wednesday) and are available from the Theatre Booking Office on 01395 514413. The production runs from October 14 to 17 starting at 7.15 with a Saturday matinee at 2.30.

CLOS to perform Gilbert and Sullivan's Ruddigore

CHARD Light Operatic Society's (CLOS) next performance, Gilbert and Sullivan's Ruddigore, is set to run at the Warehouse Theatre, Ilminster, from Wednesday, October 14th to Saturday, October 17th.

"Strange things are happening in the little Cornish fishing village of Rederring. Overlooked by the Castle Ruddigore, where the cursed Murgatroyd family live, the villagers gather to welcome popular local boy and sailor in Nelson's navy, Dick Dauntless, as he returns from months at sea to find his foster-brother Robin still unable to tell the most eligible maiden in the village that he loves her. Taking on the task of alerting her to the facts, Dick meets the beauty and falls in love himself. Following his heart's dictates he tells the Fair Rose Maybud of his affection. She immediately & positively responds. The curse on the Murgatroyd family involves a picture gallery of ancestors who wreak hideous punishment on any Baronet who refuses to commit their daily crime. Dick, also at his heart's prompting, tells Sir Despard Murgatroyd, the present holder of the title "Bad Baronet of Ruddigore", that Robin is, in fact, his long lost elder brother and should be the Bad Baron! Chaos ensues."

Along with Gilbert's wit and Sullivan's fabulous score you can expect to see barmy bridesmaids, a mad maid who likes playing with reeds, a baronet skilled in the use of a whip, sorcery, magic and suspense and people who go about singing in public!

CLOS presents a strong line of principal players for your entertainment featuring the voices of Marjie Dorling, Meurig Thomas, Neil Wells, Neil Lane, Mike Dunn, Helen Webber, Chris Williamson and alternate nights Silvey Webber and Jen Boxell as the "girl the boys fight over" Rose Maybud. Accompanied by a small band of professional musicians under the watchful eye of popular South-West conductor, Nick Lawrence, what more could one ask for from a night at the Warehouse Theatre?

Tickets are available at Lanes in Ilminster and Warehouse Theatre box office telephone 01460 61126. For more info visit our website www.clos.org.uk

Dozens of lives could be saved and hundreds of accidents avoided for just 20p

TyreSafe launches a 'lifesaver in your pocket'

Dozens of lives could be saved and hundreds of accidents avoided in the UK each year for just 20p according to TyreSafe as it launches October's Tyre Safety Month. Throughout the month hundreds of garages across the country will be encouraging motorists to check the depth of their tyre tread by using a 20p coin, to ensure they stay safe and legal.

"As we move into the wettest months of the year, adequate tyre tread depth is a critical element of road safety," explains Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe. "There are still far too many accidents and fatalities occurring every day which could have been avoided if the driver had paid more attention to the condition of their tyres. The 'lifesaver in your pocket' campaign gives drivers an incredibly easy and simple way to check their tread depth which will help them stay safe and on the right side of the law."

During 2008, 34 motorists died on the UK's roads where an illegal, defective or under-inflated tyre was a contributory factor in the accident. At least 900 other motorists were also injured in accidents where tyre neglect played a part. Independent research commissioned by TyreSafe found that more than half of all drivers could not correctly identify the legal tread depth and a startling one in five drivers had never checked their tread depth. The AA reported that in 2008 nearly one in ten of every breakdown it attends, is for a tyre related call out.

Current UK law states that tyre tread on cars must be at a minimum of 1.6mm across the central three quarters of the tread, around its entire circumference. Drivers found in breach of this law face a fine of up to £2500 and three penalty points for each illegal tyre.

The 'lifesaver in your pocket' campaign encourages drivers to insert a 20p coin into the main grooves of the tyre to check the tread depth. If the outer band of the coin is visible when inserted, then the tyre may not have sufficient depth and should be checked by a qualified specialist.

Adequate tread depth is critical to safe motoring. The tread grooves are carefully designed to remove water from the road surface and keep the tyre in contact with the road. If the tread grooves are not deep enough, water cannot be moved resulting in a loss of grip and traction which can lead to longer stopping distances, reduced handling and an increased likelihood of aquaplaning. More than a quarter of drivers surveyed by TyreSafe were unaware that they were more likely to suffer from aquaplaning with low tread and one in five drivers were unaware that they would take longer to stop in the wet or would not be able to go round corners as well.

"The level of ignorance about tread depth is quite worrying," adds Jackson. "Tyres are the only part of the vehicle in contact with the road surface so it is essential that they are in a condition that allows them to perform properly. If people do not look after them properly, not only do they risk incurring fines and penalty points, but they also greatly increase their likelihood of being involved in a serious accident."

For further information about tyre safety or details of how to use the lifesaver in your pocket, visit the TyreSafe website at www.tyresafe.org.

Top Tips for checking tyre tread depths

- Ideally, tyre tread depth should be checked at least once a month at the same time that you check your tyre pressure.
- If you do not have a calibrated tread depth gauge a 20p coin provides a useful guide.
- Insert the 20p coin into the main tyre grooves at several places around the circumference of the tyre and across its width.
- If the outer band of the 20p coin is visible whenever you check the tread, your tread depth may be illegal and you should have them checked by a qualified tyre specialist.
- When checking your tread depth, give the rest of the tyres a visual inspection for any cuts or bulges and remove any stones or objects embedded in the tread.

WESTCOUNTRY JAGUAR

Independent Jaguar & Daimler Specialist

Tel: 01404 891999

Passionate about Jaguars for over 39 years

With 39 years of experience looking after Jaguars, Derek Lee has brought his skill and passion to Dunkeswell. Derek provides the ultimate care in Jaguar repair and maintenance at a competitive price on a one to one basis.

Derek has been based in London where in 1976 he left his employment with a Jaguar main dealer agent to become one of the founding partners in Leeborn - a family based business, which even then was centred around Jaguars. Having become the business's driving force, and developed it into a highly respected Jaguar and Daimler sales and service centre, the company then moved to new purpose - designed, fully equipped premises and renamed the company D.A. Lee. Derek's workshops have been designed to his own specifications and equipped with the very latest in computer diagnostics so that the care and maintenance of Jaguars and Daimlers was simply the best.

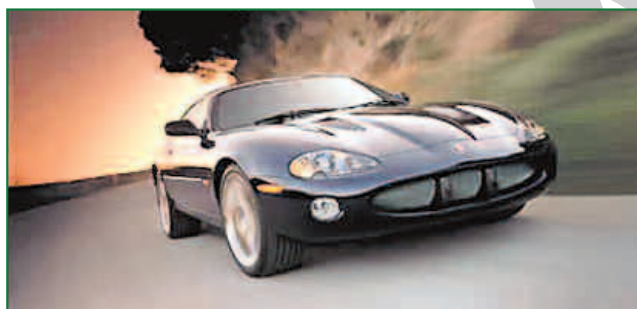

Derek Lee is not a man who accepts second best. He honed his winning formula in the competitive world of motorcycle racing. In six years Derek won more races than he can remember and three championships. Derek invested in the right equipment, employed the right people to tune and maintain his race bikes so that they were always in peak condition and absolutely reliable, he then added his own determination and drive. He is using that same formula to provide Jaguar and Daimler owners with the best independent maintenance and repair facility in the area.

Derek has looked after many customers from all parts of the globe - from all over England, Israel, Italy, Sweden, France and Scotland, some who still have their cars brought down to the brand new premises in Dunkeswell, like a Series II V12 Coupe which Derek has looked after for 32 years. Some of Derek's old London based customers having moved to the West Country, and after learning Derek is based in Dunkeswell, are coming back to re-establish service on their Jaguars.

Derek has the latest and best equipment money can buy in his workshop. From the computerised engine diagnostic and tuning unit to an air-conditioning maintenance machine, which also cares for the environment - no refrigerant is released into the atmosphere.

D.A. Lee is fully equipped to carry out all maintenance and repair work on Jaguar or Daimler cars. D.A. Lee offers the best independent and personal Jaguar service with all work being carried out to Jaguar specifications and schedules, using genuine Jaguar parts and top grade Oils. Regular reports keep you in touch with your car's progress and Derek will also consult you before carrying out any unexpected work. All this comes at a much cheaper price than a main dealer. Whatever your Jaguar needs, D.A. Lee is able to provide a service second to none.

CUSTOMER TESTIMONIALS

Hi Derek,

Just to say thank you for the recent work carried out on my Jag. Everything is perfect and as I was so impressed with your service I will, without hesitation, use you again and will also recommend you to others.

R&P, Axminster

Thank you for servicing the X type. Moving to another garage is always a risk, but I just wanted to say how impressed I was with the whole experience of moving away from a main dealer to you. From the very first phone call to getting the car back was fantastic, a level of service that one really only dreams of these days, certainly five star plus.

And to top it all, the cost of the service was realistic with no nasty surprises or unexpected expenses attached. It was a true pleasure to deal with a craftsman who knows his trade and is passionate about Jaguars. Thank you.

M.K. Honiton

Dear Derek Lee,

I write formally to put on record the excellent work done for maintenance and overhaul of my S Type Jaguar. The car feels like new again and is a pleasure to drive.

I cannot speak highly enough of the cleanliness and order, both of your workshops, and of my car when returned.

All the work was of a very high standard and was carried out with the manufacturers spare parts and at substantially lower charges than at a main dealer.

I would not hesitate to recommend your work to other owners.

T.McC, Wick, Honiton

Dear Derek,

I was delighted with all aspects of the service I received from Derek Lee at West Country Jaguar. Derek's in-depth knowledge of all things Jaguar and his speedy and expert diagnosis of the problem I had with my X-Type left me a very, very satisfied customer indeed. This was in contrast to a number of visits to various Jaguar main dealers which have left me often frustrated and occasionally less than happy with the service I received. On return, my car was valeted to a high standard and has since been running beautifully. What more can you ask! All my own words!

More economy, style and value: the new Volkswagen Golf Estate

THE new Golf range is extended today with the latest and most practical model: the new Golf Estate. The car is available to order now ahead of the first models arriving in showrooms on 6 November. The car itself is more comfortable than ever, with a sharper, sportier look and high levels of standard equipment. Prices start at £16,380 for the entry-level S 1.2-litre TSI with 105 PS and rise to £22,580 for the range-topping Sportline 2.0-litre TDI 140 PS with DSG gearbox.

Taking its key styling cues from the Mk VI Golf hatchback, the Estate has a new front bumper and body coloured rear bumper, fresh new wheel designs and modified tail lights, and inside a new dashboard and revised upholstery.

The basic range remains as before with S, SE and Sportline trim levels. However in a break from this and starting a new trend in Volkswagen's line-ups, an economical and low-CO2 emitting variant is available in all three trim levels designated BlueMotion Technology. From now on, only the very lowest emitting and most economical cars in a range (for example, the Golf hatch at 99 g/km) will be known as simply 'BlueMotion'.

That said, the new Golf Estate BlueMotion Technology models – with a 105 PS 1.6-litre TDI common rail engine and available in S, SE and Sportline trims – return 67.3 mpg on the combined cycle and emit a class-leading 109 g/km of CO2. This not only puts them in VED Band B, but means they fall below the 121 g/km company car tax threshold leading to potential savings for company car drivers of more than £1,000 over three years.

Changes to all Golf Estate BlueMotion Technology models compared with their standard counterparts are wheels with low rolling resistance tyres, battery regeneration, hill hold, a multifunction computer with visual gear change recommendation for optimum fuel consumption on manual models and a Start/Stop function. As a package they contribute to an improvement in fuel economy of around seven per cent and an eight per cent drop in carbon dioxide emissions. The premium to 'upgrade' from the standard 1.6-litre TDI to the BlueMotion Technology is £410 (see price list on following page for full details).

Across the range, a total of five engines will be offered: two petrol and three diesel. The entry-level petrol, which will go on sale in spring next year, will be a new 1.2-litre TSI 105 PS. It is accompanied by the existing 1.4-litre TSI 122 PS which is available now. Diesel engines consist of two 1.6-litre TDI units producing 90 (available spring) or 105 PS (available now), and a 2.0-litre TDI 140 PS (also available now). A number of different gearboxes are offered, including the seven-speed DSG automatic

Hyundai stretches to £80,000 with new Equus

- Flagship luxury limousine revealed
- Powered by new 5.0-litre V8 with 400PS
- Bulletproof version available

THE most sophisticated and luxurious Hyundai ever has just been launched in South Korea. The long-wheelbase version of the Equus saloon is the largest and most expensive vehicle in the Hyundai line-up, rivaling the likes of the BMW 7-Series and the Mercedes S-Class. Prices for the Equus Limousine start at approximately £70,000 and go up to £80,000.

Passenger comfort was at the forefront of the design criteria and as a result the new model offers passengers unparalleled levels of interior space and luxury. The vehicle is longer than major competitors by as much as 310 mm, with up to 376 mm more backseat legroom. The new model is fitted with the most powerful engine ever built for a Hyundai production car – a 5.0-litre V8. With a maximum output of 400PS and a torque rating of 500Nm, the Equus outperforms competitors such as the Lexus LS460L by 20PS and the Mercedes S500L by 12PS.

It's not just the driver that will find something substantial under his right foot. Rear passengers will find they have the world's first power-driven footrest, seat leg support, relax posture control and a massage system. This sort of comfort isn't usually found anywhere outside of an aircraft's first class lounge.

Hyundai has also developed a bulletproof version of the car and has delivered three units to the Korean President. Hyundai is the first Korean company to develop a bulletproof car with its own technology.

The Equus is primarily aimed at Hyundai's domestic Korean market. Potential export markets are currently being assessed, but the car is unlikely to be imported to the UK officially.

Indoor bowls season underway

SEPTEMBER 21st was the first day of the Honiton Indoor Bowling Club's 2009/2010 season and the start of the Ivens Monday Night Roll-up League, writes Tony Broughton.

All members can enter this competition and it always attracts a full rinks of players. Players are distributed into teams and the shots difference scored each time you play is added or subtracted to or taken from your running total.

The total number of shots you score over the season is then averaged out over the number of matches you played in. The winner is the player with the highest average and you must play in at least 11 of these contests to qualify.

This is the only competition running in the first two weeks but all other leagues start next week.

Sunday was the Ladies v Gents match. This always produces some fierce competition and this time was no exception.

Men's captain, John Ritchie and ladies vice-captain, Dulcie Broughton both put out strong sides, but in the end last years win by the ladies on all four rinks was overturned with the men winning on three of the four rinks with a total score of 108-59.

Top winning rink was for the men, Tony Tooley, John Collings, Tony Broughton and Mike Dart with a score of 32-12.

Saturday was the men's first chance to try out their new look competitive side when they played Isca, Exeter, in a preliminary round of the Denny Cup.

I say new look because there were players names in this side I did not recognise, but presumably the selectors had some kind of sixth sense about these things.

This competition is to eventually find the Top Club in England, but the early matches are played at national level within regions. Devon is in the South West region that includes Cornwall, Dorset and Somerset. The format is two rinks play at home and two rinks play away, the scores are then added together.

Isca and Exonia are without a doubt two of the strongest clubs in our local area so we can always expect a tough contest with them, and this match was no exception. We ended up winning one rink and losing one rink both at home and away.

However, the overall result was a win for Isca.

The winning rinks were Ken Clarke, Tony Young, Mike Dart and Steve Dommett at home and Roger Binmore rink away.

However, all is not lost because clubs that lose in the first round of this competition can then go on to compete in The Denny Plate, when the other first round losers are divulged we will know who our opponents will be in that competition.

We had two friendly matches this week the first was at home against the Devon County Ladies Patrons, which Honiton won 104-68. Top rink for Honiton was Corinne Galinski, Liz Fielding, Lynda Dommett and Carole Fisher at 42-8.

The second was away to Axminster that turned out to be a very tight match that Honiton won by just one shot. The rinks skipped by Eddie Sharman and Andrew Evans both won by 3 shots and the one skipped by Dave Roberts lost by 5.

Author comments, if the two indoor vice-captains get any friendlier than they were at the Over 60s presentation day at Budleigh this year we could be in for some excitement in 2010/11.

Golf round-up

HONITON with Paul Dimond

IT'S difficult to imagine a better place to be on a warm, calm late September morning than the peaceful, gently undulating fairways of Honiton Golf Club.

This Sunday the gentlemen played a friendly Stableford, with some consistently good scores meaning little separated the front runners. Kerry Burke rose to the top of Division 1 with 37 points, one point ahead of Robin Smith who pipped Ed Reece on countback. Division 2 was a more clear cut affair with Keith Chinn winning handsomely on 37 points a full 4 points clear of Tom Payne and Buzz Harris back on 33.

For the first time at Honiton Golf Club members played for the Ward Trophy. This trophy has been presented by Lady Vice-Captain Elizabeth Ward and her husband John in memory of their son Scott and will be played for annually. The format was Greensomes Stableford drawn for partners.

The winning couple with 38 pts were Jennifer Pyle and Stan Squire. Second with 35 pts were Pat Upstone and Peter Shepherd and third place went to Avril Shepherd and Cyril Dann with 34 pts on c/b. The competition together with a raffle raised £150 for the Devon Air Ambulance.

This week's ladies competition was the Daily Mail Foursomes. The winners with 36 pts were Diana Gee and Andrea Squire. Second with 34 pts were Linda Blundell and Carole Cole and third with 33 pts were June Hodge and Chris Pearce.

The Devon County Venerable Vets Salver was this year played at Honiton. The winner with 37 pts was home player Margaret Jory.

AXE CLIFF with Helen Gaudie

THE men played their Dar and Hazel Wood Cup competition on Sunday in lovely sunny conditions and it reflected in the scores - all were very close.

Division One was won by M Bond (2) with a nett 67, second place went to S Orren (10) with a nett 68 and third was L Snell (10) with a nett 69.

In Division Two first place went D Steel (19), also with a very good score of nett 68, second place with also one point in it was C Alexander (13) with a nett 69 and third was G Binmore (17) with a nett 71.

The ladies played an away friendly match with Bridport last Friday. The Axe Cliff ladies played their socks off nearly all the matches decided on the 17th or 18th holes but they were beaten 6 - 0.

The ladies played their Lorraine Cup on Wednesday in cloudy but warm weather. The winner was Helen Gaudie ◆ MARGARET Jory proudly displays the Devon County Venerable Vets Salver at Honiton.

(25) from Glenda Board (18) on countback ruling they both had nett 74. Margaret Brown (26) won the medal with a nett 75.

In the seniors' section, Axe Cliff avenged their humbling defeat at Sidmouth in July by beating their visitors last Thursday by 4 v 2.

Winners for Axe Cliff were Chris Walker/George East: Gilbert Cox/John W White and Clive Davie/Hugh Willis. Two games finished all square and half points were won by Malcolm Glass/Brian Blackwood and Peter Knighting/Bryan Dale.

Due in part to the Sidmouth match on the preceding day, coupled with injuries to others, only 23 members took part in the September Stableford.

In a close finish the 38 points from John Pugh (16) proved enough in the end to win. Mike Tomes (17) had 37 points for second place, while two players returned cards of 36 points. Third place on countback went to John W. White (22) with Sid Pember (18) the player to miss out on the prizes.

LYME REGIS with Ellie Langford

THE unusually dry conditions resulted in some good scores in the Daily Mail Foursomes on October 1st.

Winners were Di Smith and Lila Lambert with nett 69. Runners-up were Jane Andrews and Gilly Madill with nett 70.5 The winners go through to the knockout competition.

Lyme Regis had a home draw against High Post from Wiltshire in the second round of the Legg Bowl which they won. The winning team comprised of Jane Southcombe and Jane Dixon as the silver pair and Val Rivers and Leslie Jellyman as the bronze pair. Lyme Regis go through to the third round.

Rugby round-up

ON a day that had a touch of autumn in it I decided to take the road to Crewkerne to cover their game against Martock: being, apart from anything else, interested to witness the progress being made at Henhayes by the developers. (Seemingly they have laid a pipe straight through the newly laid Crewkerne cricket square! It's probably something that developers do!!)

PAIGNTON 25pts, SIDMOUTH 8pts

POOR Sidmouth! Their run of defeats continues and on Saturday they were, to a great extent, the architects of their own downfall.

They played with the breeze at their backs in the first half and were perhaps guilty of not making the most of the advantage that it afforded them.

After each team had threatened in turn, it was Sidmouth which took the lead via the boot of Channing who kicked a penalty goal, and their further pressure was rewarded when Sam Richardson charged down a Paignton relieving kick and followed well to regather and touch down.

The home side came back with a try that had a shade of good fortune about it. A Sidmouth "up and under" was kicked back. The ball was allowed to bounce. Followers hacked on and the ball was not secured. It was hacked on again, bounced kindly for the home out half and he gathered and went in under the posts, thus making the conversion a formality.

This took the score to 7-8 and Sidmouth did have a chance to increase their lead in the short term. Hannay who, together with his back row colleagues Derryman and Richardson, was at the forefront of everything good for Sidmouth, broke and put Seward away. He was tackled into touch just short however and, at this juncture the home side lost a player to the bin.

Sidmouth could not capitalise and, in fact Paignton drove a maul some 20 yards in his absence. Sidmouth conceded a penalty in defence and it was converted to give Paignton a 10-8 lead with the last kick of the half.

Sidmouth had experienced the odd problem under the high ball during the first period and they emerged too in the second.

After some five minutes play they dropped a Garryowen on their own twenty two and the home winger followed, gathered and touched down for a try that, although it remained unconverted, took the score to 15-8 in home favour.

Sidmouth did set up an attack, initiated by Pyne, taking play to the home line before possession was lost; but lost Chesterton to the bin soon after and, in his absence, Paignton scored twice. A Paignton touch kick was misdirected but caused confusion in the Sidmouth ranks and the home winger nipped in to gather and put his out half in under the posts for his second try of the game. Again the extras were added, and a dropped goal kicked for good measure subsequently that took the score to 25-8 with an hour gone.

Sidmouth now had to score three times if they were to win and, although the game opened up in the final quarter, there were no more scores and Paignton held on for what was a fairly comfortable win

NEW CROSS 8pts, HONITON 6pts

THIS was a game that Honiton will wish to consign to the waste bin for a number of reasons. They played with the breeze at their backs during the first period enjoyed an edge in both territory and possession throughout the first quarter, only for dropped passes and other infringements to disrupt their efforts.

Tragedy then struck for, when the game was 20 minutes old, influential back row forward Josh Rice was stretched off, having sustained a broken leg. Honiton then needed to regroup and, while they were doing so, New Cross won lineout ball close to their opponents' line and mauled their way over for an unconverted try.

Honiton did come back however and reduced the arrears just before the break via the boot of Guilbert who kicked a penalty goal. In fact it was Honiton who scored next, again through a Guilbert penalty, just after the restart and their cause was helped by the home number eight forward seeing yellow.

They did come close to scoring in his absence but could not quite manage to do so. Lane got over but was pulled back by the referee for some infringement or other. Findlay too crossed the line but was adjudged not to have grounded the ball.

Then with some 20 minutes left, New Cross kicked a penalty goal to regain the lead after Honiton had infringed and, try as they might, Honiton could not score again before the final whistle. Thus the game ended with New Cross winning narrowly and with Honiton feeling that they can play better than they actually did on the day.

CHANNINGS WOOD PRISON 50pts,*HONITON 3rd 15pts

THE Honiton third side were well beaten by a strong and fit Channings Wood side who had home advantage. Honiton's tries were scored by Ollie Rice and Ricky Lennon (two).

HONITON COLTS 7pts,*CREDITON COLTS 14pts

WITH the Honiton second side having no fixture, the club's colts side had the freedom of Allhallows where they entertained the very useful Crediton Colts side.

Honiton played up the slope during the first half and fell behind to a Crediton converted try after some 10 minutes play. They responded well however and evened the scores with a similar effort.

A scissors move between the centres created space for full back Ben Small and he ran strongly to touch down. George Meadows added the extras and the score remained at 7-7 until the halfway stage.

Honiton would have been the more confident of the sides at this juncture, having the slight slope in their favour in the second half and it may well have been that this was their undoing. In spite of having the better of the territory and the majority of possession, won by a pack that was going well, they lacked a little in composure and patience in spite of the efforts of man of the match Ollie Rice.

They were perhaps, individually speaking, guilty of trying too hard and could not break down the visitors' defence. Then, a Crediton breakaway try that was converted rubbed salt into their wounds and gave the visitors the win.

HONITON 13s 14pts, IVYBRIDGE 13s 15pts

THIS cup encounter was really the game of the weekend with Honiton losing out to the hitherto unbeaten Ivybridge side by a single point.

The action flowed from end to end with the home side holding the lead until well into the second half, thanks to tries by Connor Long and Wesley Keywood, with Harry Wright converting both. The visitors countered with two tries of their own, one of which they converted. They then kicked a penalty late in the second half to edge to the win.

BRIDPORT 12s 7pts, HONITON 12s 52pts

HONITON emerged from this game clear and easy winners, scoring tries through Steve Turner (four), Hannah Jenkins (three) and James Fernando. Groves kicked five conversions and Clapp one, to complete the scoring.

BRIDPORT 11s 14pts, HONITON 11s 12pts

AFTER a good first half performance that took them into a 12-0 lead at the halfway stage, with Charlie Wright scoring two tries one of which he converted and with him running the length of the pitch to touch down the second, Honiton failed to weather the home second half rally. They finally lost out, albeit narrowly, to two converted efforts.

BRIDPORT 10s 5pts, HONITON 10s 40pts*BRIDPORT 10s 5pts, HONITON 10s 15pts

HONITON came out on top at both encounters at under 10 level with tries coming from Ben Phillips (four), Jack Katene (two), Sean Monkhouse (two), Joe Whitworth, Sam Phillips and Joel Gibson. Sam Phillips was voted Man of the Match.

BRIDPORT 9s 20pts, HONITON 9s 35pts*BRIDPORT 9s 20pts, HONITON 9s 10pts

HONITON won their first game but lost the second. They scored tries through Jack Baker, Jacob Wright (three) Torrin Jones (two) and Ryan Woolcott in the first game; and by Toby Mandrupson, and Ryan Woolcott in the second. Josh Padeleyis good tackling stint earned him the Man of the Match award.

BRIDPORT 7-8s 8tries, HONITON 7-8s 4tries*BRIDPORT 7-8s 3tries, HONITON 7-8s 8tries

THOMAS Custance was voted Man of the Match. He scored two tries. Emily Lee scored three and Eithan Rowe notched two also.

PREVIEW

ANOTHER weekend of league rugby is due to take place on Saturday next and both local sides are involved.

HONITON, who have scattered most opponents before them so far this season before last weeks narrow reversal at New Cross, take on NORTH TAWTON at Allhallows and I cannot see the current trend being reversed as far as Honiton are concerned, for the visiting side ended last season in the lower half of the Devon League Division Two and has done little so far this season to indicate that a change of fortunes looms.

I do remember however that the Allhallows brigade played these opponents in a cup game some 10 years ago. I went to watch that match that was played on the mid Devon club's second pitch and Honiton almost made a complete pig's ear of it.

If memory serves, they eventually stumbled to a 6-3 win, having been given a fright by a side who, although they did not construct much themselves, came out and really "had a go". No room for complacency then, Honiton!!

SIDMOUTH on the other hand have not been able to buy a league win so far this term. They would, scant weeks ago, be disappointed in the extreme to return from Saturday's opponents YATTON with anything less than a win. Currently however, anything other than a loss will relieve them.

They do have a couple of games against the league's lesser sides during the next month and they really must get something from these. If they do not, then the season threatens to be a long and harrowing one.

Both second sides will be engaged in pretty testing fixtures. Sidmouth entertain Barnstaple seconds, always a competitive bunch, while Honiton seconds entertain Teignmouth seconds against whom they have had several close games in recent times.

Sidmouth thirds will likely have an easier task at Torrington seconds, while the Sidmouth Colts play their opposite numbers from the Torrington club.

Chard Town Colts pull out of league

DORSET JUNIOR CUP

ROUND ONE

A DISASTROUS second-half showing against visiting Donhead United cost Lyme Regis Reserves a place in the second Round of the Dorset Junior Cup.

The Seaside, aided by a strong wind were sailing reasonably comfortably along at half-time with goals from full-backs Tom Bond and Ali Rattenbury giving them a 2-0 advantage.

But a catalogue of errors and a distinctly lethargic attitude resulted in the hosts shipping five goals without reply in the second 45 to book a trip to Beaminster Reserves in round two.

At 2-2 Lyme had the perfect chance to snatch back the initiative when a Donhead defender was harshly adjudged to have handled in the box. But 16-year-old winger Ryan Fifer who has made such a tremendous start to the season squandered the opportunity by drilling his spot-kick over the bar and the Lyme second-string are now without a win in their last four outings.

Better news 12 miles West where Netherbury, semi-finalists two seasons ago, continued their superb start to the season with a 3-1 win over visitors Normalair RSL who themselves made the last four last season. Makeshift striker 'Roy' Szmigielski put the Ambers ahead at the interval with a 30-yard screamer.

But the Yeovil League side scrambled home a 70th minute leveller, 'Last season we would have wilted at this point' said Netherbury boss Andy Loudon. From here the sides couldn't be split and headed in the extra-time.

Ex-Pymore midfielder Ryan Gay restored the lead with his first goal in Netherbury colours and the home second round tie with Wallisdown Cons or Piddlehinton United was sealed by James Sayers' sixth goal of the season.

SOMERSET JUNIOR CUP

ROUND ONE

ALL three Perry Street league sides crashed out at the first hurdle of the Somerset Junior Cup.

Man-of-the-Match Josh Rolfe struck twice but Chard Rangers were thrashed 7-2 at Jocelyn Park by Coleford Athletic. Crewkerne Rangers went closer – taking visiting Kewstocke Lions to extra-time before being edged out 4-3. Simon Denslow, Tom Broome and Liam Adams were on target for the Rangers.

With the club missing a total of 15 players due to a paintballing trip to celebrate Charlie Rutter's birthday, depleted Iminster Town Reserves were second best at the Rec and slipped out 3-0 at the hands of Stoke sub Hamdon.

JOHN FOWLER CUP

ROUND ONE

COMBE A were the day's top scorers with an 8-0 thrashing of Chard Rangers Reserves who suffered their fourth straight defeat. The shut-out was the Saints' first in 19 games.

Crewkerne Reserves used the gusty wind to good effect to surprisingly lead in-form hosts Hawkhurst 2-0.

Predictably, the Hawks fought back with Glenn Harding striking before the break. Harding scored again to take his tally to eight and the Hawks missed plenty of chances but the Tigers secured a home quarter-final with Luso-Chard with a late winner.

It was also 3-2 at First Avenue where Fivehead United edged past Millwey Rise Reserves. Fivehead were two clear at the turnaround before Matt Beechey and Mark Pike restored parity to force extra-time. The Slopers were caught cold immediately after the restart and Fivehead marched on to take-on either Misterton Reserves or Crewkerne Rangers in the last eight.

Quarter-final draw: Crewkerne Town Reserves v Luso-Chard, Lyme Regis Bantams v Shepton Beauchamp Reserves, Misterton Reserves or Crewkerne Rangers v Fivehead United, White Horse Reserves v Combe A.

Perry Street league round-up with Howard Larcombe

PREMIER

THERE were a couple of shocks in the Premier Division programme with the top two both being pegged back for the first time this season.

Leaders Beaminster went down 2-1 at Slades Cross against Combe Reserves. Things seemed to be going according to plan when Adam Gale put Beaminster ahead in the tenth minute. But James Boyland levelled on the half-hour. The visitors were reduced to 10 men when Ex-Misterton man Greg Channing received a second yellow card from referee Nigel Fry for shirt pulling.

The Saints then took full advantage when Boyland struck again in the last minute to move up to third in the table. Combe manager Mark Parris was impressed by the efforts of striker Jon-Paul Doyle whose performance he described as "awesome".

There was perhaps a bigger shock at Lightgate Lane where Barrington shocked neighbours 1-0.

The Yellow Hammers struck the decisive blow when marksman Guy Dare netted from the penalty spot in the 43rd minute.

Things took a turn for the worse for Pethy when Paul Holt was dismissed for two yellow card offences 10 minutes after the restart. Holt was then followed by substitute George Warr who had only been on the pitch for a few minutes to leave Karl Diment's side facing the last half-hour with only nine men. Amazingly the hosts still managed to carve out some decent chances but Barrington held on to move up to fifth.

Charmouth have long since resigned themselves to a tough season which will probably end in relegation. But Manager Mike Walton is insistent that his side will still go out and enjoy the season. The Robins put in their best performance of the season and at least had their first goal of the season to cheer in the latest defeat - a 6-1 reverse at Crewkerne Town.

Shaun Meyers grabbed the Charmouth goal in the first-half but the Tigers were well in command and led 4-1 with strikes from Jamie Spurdle, Dan McCreadie, Adam Dawe and an OG. That's how it stayed until last two minutes when the hosts struck twice more through McCreadie and veteran Pete Lemmey.

White Horse appeared to be cantering towards three points when they led Perry Street 2-0 at the break at Symondsburry. But the Mothers had other ideas and surged back to record a fine 3-2 victory with goals from Ben Stevens (2) and Sam McCafferey.

Merriott Rovers failed to provide a referee for their fixture with and can expect a fine in the process.

Meanwhile Lyme have put in motion plans to solve a shortage of strikers at the club by putting in formal approaches for four players. The quartet are: Tim Hussey (Hawkhurst), Stuart Packer (Thorcombe), Lee Cleal (Bridport) and Graham White (Axminster Town).

DIVISION ONE

MERRIOTT Reserves' third consecutive away win has taken them two points clear at the top of the table.

Rovers latest triumph on the road came in an impressive 2-0 win at Farway United. Goals from Haydn Smith and Dean Charles in the last 20 minutes to end the Devonians 100 per cent record.

A superb Craig Tovey strike midway through the second-half was enough to land Thorncombe all three points from the derby game with Winham United at Horseshoe Lane.

West & Middle Chincock shared the points and six goals with Iminster Town Colts at Oxleaze.

DIVISION TWO

THERE was some sad news from Division Two where Chard Town Colts finally admitted defeat to their troubled start to the campaign by withdrawing from the league.

The team has already racked up £105 in fines for postponements leaving the cash-strapped parent club with choice than to withdraw the Colts from the league. This will mean the South Somerset club have no presence in the Perry Street League for the first time in many years.

A Man-of-the-Match performance by Ashley Hall, grandson of long-serving referee Bob Hall helped to a 3-0 win over visiting Drimpton. Hall opened the scoring in the 19th minute as the Rainbows held a slender lead at the interval. A lightning quick double-strike by the experienced Ross Picketts just before the hour then killed the game off to leave Robin Ormsby's side sitting well-placed in mid-table. Ormsby was impressed by the performance of ex-Beaminster man mark Woodley amongst the Greens lineup.

A first goal in Uplyme colours for Will Francis gave The Swallows some hope from their trip to Forton Reserves. But the hosts still headed off for the half-time tea 2-1 up. The lead was extended to 3-1 before Gavin Fowler pulled back a late consolation. Dave Fowler, Lee Richardson and Barry Male netted for Rangers.

Dowlish & Donyatt, still missing influential midfielder Ben Charlton who is sidelined through injury, went down by the odd goal in nine against visiting South Petherton Reserves. Chris Rawle (2), Andy North and Matt Vinnal scored for the White stripes but Pethy secured the win, and second place, with strikes from Joe Humphries (2), Dean Smith (2) and an Andy Moody penalty.

Millwey Rise consolidated their top spot with a hard fought 2-1 win at Hinton in a game new Millwey joint-manager Shane Featherstone described as "A credit to the League." The Saints took a 20th minute lead but Mark Vaughan headed home a leveller on the half-hour. Vaughan repeated the feat on the hour with the winner as the Slopers capitalised on their proficiency at set-pieces. Featherstone picked out midfield dynamo Callum Garrett and centre-back Ian Hall as his top performers.

Chard United opened their points account with a fine 2-1 win at Shepton Beauchamp.

DIVISION THREE

MERRIOTT'S failure to find a referee certainly counted against Shepton Beauchamp Reserves as Lyme Bantams were able to pick from their entire first team squad (who were all cup-tied for the Reserves county cup game) for the visit of the Shepton second-string.

As it was the Bantams manager Rob Larcombe found space for four of them and the result reflected this as the hosts won 11-0. Club captain Adam Caddy led the way with four with the rest shared between Steve Batey (2), Rhys Paterson (2), Jamie Jones, Ben Strong and Joe Bond.

It wasn't all good news for the Seaside as both Jones and teenage full-back Tom Baptist picked up injuries. Baptist will be out for six weeks after damaging a retina after catching a ball full in the face.

It was certainly a game of two halves at Unity Lane where goals from Luke Dearnley, James Pitcher and Ashley Walkey gave White Horse Reserves a 3-0 half-time lead. But hosts Misterton Reserves surged back after the restart and bagged a point with goals from Dan Dominguez (2) and Johnny Jackson.

DIVISION FOUR

GOALS from Stuart Weir and Dan Morley couldn't prevent Hawkhurst Reserves from sliding to a 3-2 defeat at Chard United Reserves.

Waytown Hounds had little difficulty in overcoming Combe B 5-1 at Slades Cross. The Hounds shared their scraps equally between Shaun Wheeler, Ethan Guppy, Steve White, Paul Watkins and a Matt Read penalty.

Axminster Town

Appledore hammer Tigers

Appledore 5 Axminster Town 0

THE Tigers, not being able to field the same side twice this season with players injured, had to make numerous changes with six players out of the first team and only 12 fit players to take to Appledore.

The Tigers started very well and the first 30 minutes were the better team and created at least six good scoring chances to take the lead. With Alex Wheatly playing a major part in the 10th minute he cleverly dribbled past three defenders on the edge of the box and tried to chip the advancing keeper who got his hand to the ball and put his effort out for a corner.

The tigers were passing the ball well, and striker Sam Dibling was causing all sorts of problems for the Appledore defence and in the 20th minute he cut in from the lefthand side and his shot just missed the target.

With Mark Hancock and Ollie Highet going close but not hitting the net, it was Appledore who took the lead in the 35th minute against the run of play when Mark Bettis got into the 18-yard box and slotted home.

The tigers had another setback when Appledore, on a breakaway just before half time, got their second goal when a good cross from the right set up striker Steve Skinner who nodded home from close range.

In the 50th minute Jamie Barfoot had to come off with an ankle injury to be replaced by young Matt Preece making his debut for the Tigers.

The Tigers conceded a third goal in the 60th minute from an in-swinging corner and Mark Bettis prodded the ball home. The Tigers worked hard but could not get back into the game and in the 60th minute James Bright got Appledore's fourth goal when he found space in the 18-yard box and fired home.

In the 85th minute Mathew Bolton scored from the edge of the box to make it 5-0 to Appledore - a very disappointing result for the Tigers. Man of the Match for the Tigers was Mike Hancock.

● Axminster Town goalkeeper Chris Higgs has turned down an offer of joining Bridport Football Club.

Feniton win 11-goal thriller

Feniton Flames 6 Seaton Town A 5

WHAT a cracking game - excitement from both sides as the scoreline went to and fro between the evenly matched teams.

The nailbiting win was achieved only in the last 10 seconds of the match.

The Seaton lads started slow and let Feniton go two goals up before Oliver Browne planted the first goal for Seaton. Then Lewis Pearson followed with a beautiful kick from the half way line that shot right in the back of the net, to make the score even.

Feniton fought hard and got right back in control until again Oliver Browne made the score a draw.

In the second half Ben Franklin scored for Seaton with Feniton scoring two. Oliver Browne was taken down by Feniton and a penalty was given and took the scoreline to five each. Lewis Franklin never gave up in defence and newcomer Ehron Keast gave a good home performance.

In the last second Feniton outwitted Seaton and found the back of the net to make the final result 6-5.

Both teams played a friendly match after and Seaton showed Feniton that it can get the goals with the scoreline 6-2 to Seaton.

The next fixture is home on October 18th against Lyme Regis

Youth football

Heavitree 7 Feniton 1

REPLYING to two goals from the home team, Matt Venton put Feniton back in this Exeter Youth League Under 11 Division Two game with a well-taken penalty. With a 2-1 scoreline at half time, the match looked like it could go either way.

Following the break, Feniton began to lose their confidence and tire with no substitutes to draw on. Heavitree fired in five more goals despite some terrific work by the Fenny goalkeeper Harry Lush.
